World Literature Decentered Ian Almond, 2021-07-13 What would world literature look like if we stopped referring to the West Starting with the provocative premise that the West is ten percent of the planet World Literature Decentered is the first book to decenter Eurocentric discourses of global literature and global history not just by deconstructing or historicizing them but by actively providing an alternative Looking at a series of themes across three literatures Mexico Turkey and Bengal the book examines hotels melancholy orientalism femicide and the ghost story in a series of literary traditions outside the West The non West the book argues is no fringe group or token minority in need of attention on the contrary it constitutes the overwhelming majority of this world

White Scholars/African American Texts Lisa Long, 2005-09-02 What makes someone an authority What makes one person's knowledge more credible than another's In the ongoing debates over racial authenticity some attest that we can know each other's experiences simply because we are all human while others assume a more skeptical stance insisting that racial differences create unbridgeable gaps in knowledge Bringing new perspectives to these perennial debates the essays in this collection explore the many difficulties created by the fact that white scholars greatly outnumber black scholars in the study and teaching of African American literature Contributors including some of the most prominent theorists in the field as well as younger scholars examine who is speaking what is being spoken and what is not and why framing African American literature in terms of an exclusive black white racial divide is problematic and limiting In highlighting the whiteness of some African Americanists the collection does not imply that the teaching or understanding of black literature by white scholars is definitively impossible Indeed such work is not only possible but imperative Instead the essays aim to open a much needed public conversation about the real and pressing challenges that white scholars face in this type of work as well as the implications of how these challenges are met The Norton Anthology of World Literature, 4e Shorter Volumes 1 and 2 + the Norton Introduction to Literature, 13e Shorter with Media Access Registration Card Kelly J Mays, 2019-01-10 Critical Pedagogy and Global Literature Masood Ashraf Raja, Hillary Stringer, Zach VandeZande, 2013-08-13 In one volume this edited collection provides both a theoretical and praxis driven engagement with teaching world literature focusing on various aspects of critical pedagogy Included are nine praxis driven essays by instructors who have taught world literature courses at the university level
