Modern Global Economic System: Evolutional Development vs. Revolutionary Leap Elena G. Popkova, Bruno S. Sergi, 2021-03-16 This proceedings book reflects the alternative way of development of the modern global economic system. It sets evolutionary development in opposition to revolutionary leap. The search for the best way to develop the world economy in the present and future is carried out. The social environment and the human centered development of the modern global economic system have been explored. The features of training of personnel for the modern global economic system through the development of vocational education and training have been studied. Sustainable development energy and food security have been identified as significant milestones of the progress of the modern global economic system. Innovations and digital technologies have been suggested as the drivers of growth and development of the modern global economic system. Consideration has been given to the institutional framework and legal groundwork for the development of the modern global economic system. The fundamentals have been identified and recommendations have been put forward for improving governmental regulation financial and capital investment support for integration in the modern global economic system. The book includes the best works based on the results of the 22nd International Research to Practice Conference Current Issues of the Global Economy which was held on June 19 2020 at the Peoples Friendship University of Russia PFUR Moscow Russia and the 14th National Research to Practice Conference A New Paradigm of Social and Economic Development in the Age of Intelligent Machines which was held on May 14 16 2020 Nizhny Novgorod Russia VIII International Research to Practice Conference Multipolar Globalization and Russia which was held on May 21 23 2020 Rostov on Don Russia III All Russian Research to Practice Conference Power Business and Education The Ascent to Man which was held on May 21 22 2020 Krasnoyarsk Russia International Research to Practice Conference Current Issues and Ways of Industrial Development Engineering and Technologies which was held from September 28 2020 till October 1 2020 Komsomolsk on Amur and the 15th National Research to Practice Conference New Models of Behavior of Market Players in the Conditions of Digital Economy which was held on October 29 30 2020 at Ufa State Oil Technical University Institute of Economics and Service Ufa Russia. The target audience of the book consists of scholars studying the features of development of the global economic system at the present stage and the prospects for its future progress. The Critical Writer Joyce Armstrong Carroll, Edward E. Wilson, 2014-04-17 High quality original writing doesn't happen by accident; it results from a logical inquiry based process. Educators will be able to apply the concepts and techniques in this book to help their students master the critical writing process. Many students tremble at the mere thought of the dreaded research paper when in fact the inquiry process that should be applied for a writing project should be an engaging and exciting mental activity. This work explains how teachers and librarians can guide the critical writing process to go hand in hand with inquiry and produce logical and carefully honed papers. The Critical Writer Inquiry and the Writing Process starts with a general treatment of inquiry to detailed coverage of specific teaching strategies explaining how critical writers should make the proper emendations during prewriting and while drafting as well as during the revising process The book presents fresh information and teaching techniques that can be applied by anyone in the field of education with students of any grade level examples from kindergarten through instructors in teacher training are included Relentless Reformer Robyn Muncy, 2016-10-11

Josephine Roche 1886 1976 was a progressive activist New Deal policymaker and businesswoman As a pro labor and feminist member of Franklin D Roosevelt s administration she shaped the founding legislation of the U S welfare state and generated the national conversation about health care policy that Americans are still having today In this gripping biography Robyn Muncy offers Roche s persistent progressivism as evidence for surprising continuities among the Progressive Era the New Deal and the Great Society Muncy explains that Roche became the second highest ranking woman in the New Deal government after running a Colorado coal company in partnership with coal miners themselves Once in office Roche developed a national health plan that was stymied by World War II but enacted piecemeal during the postwar period culminating in Medicare and Medicaid in the 1960s By then Roche directed the United Mine Workers of America Welfare and Retirement Fund an initiative aimed at bolstering the labor movement advancing managed health care and reorganizing medicine to facilitate national health insurance one of Roche s unrealized dreams In Relentless Reformer Muncy uses Roche s dramatic life story from her stint as Denver s first policewoman in 1912 to her fight against a murderous labor union official in 1972 as a unique vantage point from which to examine the challenges that women have faced in public life and to reassess the meaning and trajectory of progressive reform

The First Atomic Bomb Jim Mangi, 2022-06-20 While German and Japanese scientists also labored unsuccessfully to create an atomic bomb by the summer of 1945 the American led team was ready to test its first weapon As the clock ticked down to the detonation time of 05 30 hours on 16 July 1945 the nervous team of technicians and scientists waited ten miles away from Ground Zero deep in the New Mexico desert No one knew how powerful the explosion would be or whether even at such a distance they would be safe from the blast Even so some chose to observe the detonation from a point four miles nearer at the control bunker but then no one was even sure that the bomb would work What if that is actually what happened Under schedule pressure from the White House the scientists assembled the device in part with tape and tissue paper knowing some components were flawed These are verifiable facts It means that as many of those who gathered in the New Mexico desert feared at the time the bomb might not have worked during that first test In The First Atomic Bomb Jim Mangi explores what might happened in the event that the world s first atomic bomb had not been ready for use when it was How would this have affected the end of the war in the Pacific and indeed the Second World War as a whole Would Emperor Hirohito s armed forces have battled on When might Colonel Paul W Tibbets at the controls of his Boeing B 29 Superfortress Enola Gay have then made his historic flight over Hiroshima and would that city even have remained the target How would Stalin and the Soviets have reacted to such developments and how would this have played out in the post war world Neoliberal Moral Economy Jörg Wiegratz, 2016-11-17 This book offers a fresh take on a major question of global debate what explains the rise in economic fraud in so many societies around the world The author argues that the current age of fraud is an outcome of not only political economic but also moral transformations that have taken place in societies reshaped by neoliberalism Using the case of Uganda the book traces these socio cultural and especially moral repercussions of embedding neoliberalism Uganda offers an important case of investigation for three reasons the high level of foreign intervention by donors aid agencies international organisations NGOs and corporations that have tried to produce the first fully fledged market society in Africa there the country s reputation as having adopted neoliberal reforms most extensively and the intensification of fraud in many sectors of the economy since the early 2000s The book explores the rise and operation of the neoliberal moral economy and its world of hard and fraudulent practices It analyses especially the moral economic character of agricultural produce markets in eastern Uganda It shows that neoliberal moral restructuring is a highly political contested and conflict ridden process predominantly works via recalibrating the political economic structure of a country and deeply affects how people think and go about earning a living and treat others with whom they do business The book offers an in depth data based analysis of the moral climate of a market society in motion and in so doing offers insights and lessons for elsewhere in the Global South and North Women's Work Jennifer Moore, 2025-03-11 When women have full socioeconomic citizenship as well as equitable and respectful partnerships with men transformative justice can be sustained in postconflict societies In Women s Work Jennifer Moore presents a reimagined theory of peacebuilding and transformative justice based on the experiences and insights of women farmers and microentrepreneurs who lived through protracted civil conflicts drawing on seven years of interviews with women activists across ten communities five in the Acholi region of Northern Uganda and five in the Moyamba and Koinadugu Districts of Sierra Leone Despite the important differences between the preconflict and conflict histories and demographics of the two countries Moore finds commonalities in the practical yet visionary approaches to community life emerging from the core values daily activities and long range goals shared by rural cooperative members in both regions Collective survival communal healing and conflict resolution define the rhythm of these women s daily lives as they go about building peace piecemeal They reject punitive retribution models and demand instead a peacebuilding model that advocates for advances in material well being the acknowledgment of state accountability for community suffering and reconciliation and restoration of community networks But most important Moore amplifies these women s voices when they insist that legal equality for women and healthy partnerships between women and men are also essential components to enduring transformation of their societies Moore theorizes what peacebuilding look like if it were modeled on these women led matriarchically structured communities that proved not only to be effective at holding governments accountable but also to have the capacity to feed their people and revitalize their local economies Women s Work shows that when women have full socioeconomic citizenship as well as equitable and respectful partnerships with men transformative justice can be sustained through the arts of collective livelihood violence free conflict management and celebration Approaches to Inclusive English Classrooms Kate Mastruserio Reynolds,2015-03-02 This book provides educators with an accessible guide to best practices concerning content based instruction CBI models and their use in English learner inclusive classrooms The author effectively bridges the gap between theory and practice with a critical analysis of practical examples and diverse strategies for the inclusion of English learners into K 12 general education courses The book also raises controversial questions regarding who is qualified to teach English learners and who is responsible for doing so looking at the difficulties faced by both general educators and ESL teachers in Inclusive Classrooms By providing a lens through which both ESL teachers and general educators are able to analyze compare and contrast a range of widely employed CBI methods this book allows teachers to make informed decisions in their EL program development and work with English learners in K 12 schools Education for people and the planet:

Security/Capital Rigakos George S. Rigakos,2016-03-18 What is security and what is its relationship to capitalism George S Rigakos explosive treatise charts the rise of the security industrial complex Starting from a critical appraisal of productive labour in the works of Karl Marx and Adam Smith Rigakos builds a conceptual model of pacification based on practices of dispossession exploitation and the fetish of security commodities Rigakos argues that a defining characteristic of the global economic system is its ability to productively sell in security to those it makes insecure Materially and ideologically the security industrial complex is the blast furnace of global capitalism fuelling the perpetuation of the system while feeding relentlessly on the surpluses it has exacted The Zoological Record ,2002 Museums and Social Responsibility

Kevin Coffee,2022-12-23 Museums and Social Responsibility examines inherent contradictions within and effecting museum practice in order to outline a museological theory of how museums are important cultural practices in themselves and how museums shape the socio cultural dynamics of modern societies especially our attitudes and understandings about human agency and creative potential Museums are libraries of objects presenting thematic justification that dominant concepts of normativity and speciality as well as attitudes of cultural deprecation By sorting culture into hierarchies of symbolic value museums cloak themselves in supposed objectivity delivered with the passion of connoisseurship and the surety of scholarly research Ulterior motives pertaining to socio economic class racial and ethnic othering and sexual subjugation are shrouded by that false appearance of objectivity This book highlights how the socially responsive practitioner can challenge and subvert taken for granted motivations by undertaking liberatory museum work that engages subaltern narratives engages historically disadvantage populations and co creates with them dialogical practices of collecting preserving exhibiting and interpreting It points to examples in Africa Asia Europe and the Americas not as self contained entities but as practices within a global web of relationships and as microcosms that define normality and abnormality that engage users in critical dialogue and that influence are conditioned by and disrupt taken for granted understandings and practices of class ethnicity sex gender thinking and being Suitable for students researchers and museum professionals Museums and Social Responsibility presents a comprehensive argument and proposes critical reflective processes to the practitioner so that their museum work may more effectively engage with and change their societies and the world

Wearing the Niqab Anna Piela, 2021-01-14 Bringing niqab wearers voices to the fore discussing their narratives on religious agency identity social interaction community and urban spaces Anna Piela situates women's accounts firmly within UK and US socio political contexts as well as within media discourses on Islam The niqab has recently emerged as one of the most ubiquitous symbols of everything that is perceived to be wrong with Islam barbarity backwardness exploitation of women and political radicalization Yet all these notions are assigned to women who wear the niqab without their consultation niqab debates are held without their voices being heard and when they do speak their views are dismissed However the picture painted by the stories told here demonstrates that for these women religious symbols such as the niqab are deeply personal freely chosen multilayered and socially situated Wearing the Niqab gives voice to these women and their stories and sets the record straight enhancing understanding of the complex picture around niqab and religious identity and agency

The Silver Bullet Solution James E. Gierach, 2023-11-21 What's been missing the past 30 years that prevented voters and leaders from hearing or acting upon the Gierach call and the Civil Society call for legalized controlled and regulated drugs and drug markets Why the public repulsion from the Silver Bullet Solution to the many tentacled drug prohibition monster Have you lost a child to fentanyl or heroin overdose Are you worried about losing a loved one to drug addiction or drug accident Is your neighborhood threatened by violent crime and gangs Is it safe for your child to get to school go to the park or play outside Do you live in a safe suburban neighborhood but yet feel like you need a firearm to be safe in your own home car or traveling on a big city expressway Do you believe the World War on Drugs 62 years old has been a dismal failure and ongoing drug seizures by the ton are evidence of that failure Regardless of color does it anger you that Blacks Latinos and poor Whites are sitting in American prisons for drug crimes at disparate rates Did you know that drug prohibition causes needless bullet holes and that bullet hole healthcare greatly contributes to an unaffordable healthcare system whether called Obamacare Trumpcare or Single Payer This book offers answers to these challenges and it broadcasts the idea that there is something YOU CAN DO about it You can help the new public opinion evolve

Global Land Grabbing and Political Reactions 'from Below' Marc Edelman, Ruth Hall, Saturnino M. Borrás Jr., Ian Scoones, Ben White, Wendy Welford, 2017-08-15 When the 2007-2008 food and financial crises triggered a global wave of land grabbing scholars activists and policy practitioners assumed that this would be met with massive peasant resistance As empirical evidence accumulated however it became clear that political reactions from below to land grabbing were quite varied and complex Violent resistance outright expulsions everyday weapons of the weak and demands for better terms of incorporation into land deals were among the outcomes that emerged Readers of this collection will encounter a multinational group of scholars who use the tools of social movements theory and critical agrarian studies to examine cases from Argentina Mexico Guatemala Nicaragua Colombia Ethiopia Madagascar Mozambique Uganda Mali Ukraine India and Laos as well as the Rio 20 Sustainable Development Conference Initiatives from below in response to land deals have involved local and transnational alliances and the use of legal and extra legal methods and have brought victories and defeats This book was first published as a special issue of The Journal of Peasant Studies Bowker's Law Books and Serials in Print ,1984 500,2025-06-01
