November 2006 Zimsec History Paper 1

Ezra Chitando

November 2006 Zimsec History Paper 1:

Zimbabwe in Transition Timothy Murithi, Aquilina Mawadza, 2011 Zimbabwe's Transition to Democracy in the post independence era has been a very difficult one. To date there have been a number of sustained efforts by various local regional and international actors to move Zimbabwe towards democracy as well as attempts to find a lasting solution to the political and economic crises that seriously affected the country's progress from the late 1990s. However these attempts have been less successful mainly because Zimbabwe has complex political and economic problems with interlocking national regional and international political and economic dimensions rooted in both historical and contemporary factors and developments. To understand the complexities of the challenges to Zimbabwe's transition to democracy as well as prospects for political change and democracy in the country Zimbabwe in Transition critically examines both the historical and contemporary dynamics shaping political and economic developments in the country taking into account voices from a broad spectrum of Zimbabwean society including civil society faith based communities the diaspora women community leaders the media youth and regional actors such as SADC and the AU. Book jacket The History and Political Transition of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Pedzisai Ruhanya, 2020-10-21 This book is the first to tackle the difficult and complex politics of transition in Zimbabwe with deep historical analysis. Its focus is on a very problematic political culture that is proving very hard to transcend. At the center of this culture is an unstable but resilient nationalist military alliance crafted during the anti colonial liberation struggle in the 1970s. Inevitably violence misogyny and masculinity are constitutive of the political culture. Economically speaking the culture is that of a bureaucratic parasitic primitive accumulation and corruption which include invasion and emptying of state coffers by a self styled Chimurenga aristocracy. However this Chimurenga aristocracy is not cohesive as the politics that led to Robert Mugabe's ousting from power was preceded by dirty and protracted internal factionalism. At the center of the factional politics was the first family Robert Mugabe and his wife Grace Mugabe. This book offers a multidisciplinary examination of the complex contemporary politics in Zimbabwe taking seriously such issues as gender misogyny militarism violence media identity modes of accumulation the ethnicization of politics attempts to open lines of credit and FDI national healing and the national question as key variables not only of a complete political culture but also of difficult transitional politics. The Ndebele Nation Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2009 Zimbabwe since the Unity Government Stephen Chan, Ranka Primorac, 2013-09-13 Zimbabwe has moved from a condition of restricted expression to one of many contradictory expressions. Politics has lost none of its compromises and conflicts but it has been amplified by an explosion of voices. For the first time a genuine debate is possible among many actors insiders and outsiders and the question marks over Zimbabwe and its future are no longer in terms of a narrow choice between one party and another one outlook or another. Compromise government has meant complexity of debate. This does not preclude disillusionment within debate but it does include vigour and imagination in debate. This book includes essays from renowned scholars governmental and diplomatic figures and prioritises contributions by Zimbabweans themselves The essays provide a blend of academic and practitioner observation and judgement which no other volume has done This book was published as a special issue of The Round Table Society, State, and Identity in African History Bahru Zewde, 2008 The Fourth Congress of the Association of African historians was held in Addis Ababa in May 2007 These 21 papers are a key selection of the papers presented there with an introduction by the distinguished historian Bahru Zewde Given the contemporary salience and the historical depth of the issue of identity the congress was devoted to that global phenomenon within Africa The papers explore and analyse the issue of identity in its diverse temporal settings from its pre colonial roots to its cotemporary manifestations The papers are divided into six parts Pre Colonial Identities Colonialism and Identity Conceptions of the Nation State and Identity Identity Based Conflicts Migration and Acculturation and Memory History and Identity The authors are scholars from Benin Botswana Cameroon the Democratic Republic of Congo Ethiopia Mali Nigeria Senegal South Africa and Zimbabwe Bahru Zewde is Emeritus Professor of History at Addis Ababa University Executive Director of the Forum for Social Studies and Vice President of the Association of African Historians He was formerly Chairperson of the Department of History and Director of the Institute of Ethiopian Studies at Addis Ababa University Amongst his publication is A History of Modern Ethiopia 1855-1991 Globalization and Self-Regulation S. Sethi, 2016-02-17 Corporate strategy expert Prakash Sethi takes an in depth look at global structures and how regulation works from a corporate perspective providing case studies of several industries and governments who have begun implementing voluntary codes of conducts including Equator Principles ICMM and The Kimberly Process 'Progress' in Zimbabwe? David Moore, Norma Kriger, Brian Raftopoulos, 2013-09-13 Zimbabwe s severe crisis and a possible way out of it with a transitional government and the new era for which it prepares the ground demands a coherent scholarly response Progress can be employed as an organising theme across many disciplinary approaches to Zimbabwe s societal devastation At wider levels too the concept of progress is fitting It underpins modern liberal and radical perspectives of development pervading the social sciences and humanities Yet perceptions of progress are subject increasingly to intensive critical inquiry Their gruesome end is signified in the political projects of Robert Mugabe and ZANU PF John Gray s Black Mass Apocalyptic Religion and the Death of Utopia indicates this It is expected that participants will engage directly in debates about how the idea of progress has informed their disciplines from political science and history to labour and agrarian studies and then relate these arguments to the Zimbabwean case in general and their research in particular This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary African Studies

The Hot 'Cold War' Vladimir Shubin, 2008-10-20 This book analyses the causes of armed conflicts in Southern Africa during the Cold War It examines the influence of the various external forces in the region during this period and their relationship to local movements and governments The book focuses on states experiencing violent internal conflict and foreign intervention that is Angola Mozambique Namibia South Africa and Zimbabwe The author provides an unique history of the key part that the Soviet Union played in these developments Spanning 30 years the book explores how each country struggled for genuine independence against colonialism and apartheid and their place in the wider conflicts encompassed by the Cold War

History of Namibia Marion Wallace, 2014-01-16 In 1990 Namibia gained its independence after a decades long struggle against South African rule and before that against German colonialism This book the first new scholarly general history of Namibia in two decades provides a fresh synthesis of these events and of the much longer pre colonial period A History of Namibia opens with a chapter by John Kinahan covering the evidence of human activity in Namibia from the earliest times to the nineteenth century and for the first time making a synthesis of current archaeological research widely available to non specialists In subsequent chapters Marion Wallace weaves together the most up to date academic research in English and German on Namibian history from the mid eighteenth century to the present She explores histories of migration production and power in the pre colonial period the changes triggered by European expansion and the dynamics of the period of formal colonialism The coverage of German rule includes a full chapter on the genocide of 1904-8 Here Wallace outlines the history and historiography of the wars fought in central and southern Namibia and the subsequent mass imprisonment of defeated Africans in concentration camps The final two chapters analyse the period of African nationalism apartheid and war between 1946 and 1990 The book's conclusion looks briefly at the development of Namibia in the two decades since independence A History of Namibia provides an invaluable introduction and reference source to the past of a country that is often neglected despite its significance in the history of the region and indeed for that of European colonialism and international relations It makes accessible the latest research on the country illuminates current controversies puts forward new insights and suggests future directions for research The book's extensive bibliography adds to its usefulness for scholar and general reader alike

Mad Dogs and Meerkats Karen Brown, 2011-04-25 Through the ages rabies has exemplified the danger of diseases that transfer from wild animals to humans and their domestic stock In South Africa rabies has been on the rise since the latter part of the twentieth century despite the availability of postexposure vaccines and regular inoculation campaigns for dogs In Mad Dogs and Meerkats A History of Resurgent Rabies in Southern Africa Karen Brown links the increase of rabies to the HIV AIDS epidemic Her study shows that the most afflicted regions of South Africa have seen a dangerous rise in feral dog populations as people lack the education means or will to care for their pets or take them to inoculation centers Most victims are poor black children Ineffective disease control which in part depends on management policies in neighboring states and the diminished medical and veterinary infrastructures in Zimbabwe has exacerbated the problem This highly readable book is the first study of rabies in Africa tracing its history in South Africa and neighboring states from 1800 to the present and showing how environmental and economic changes brought about by European colonialism and global trade have had long term effects Mad Dogs and Meerkats is recommended for public health policy makers and anyone interested in human animal relations and how societies and governments have reacted to one of the world's most feared diseases Do 'Zimbabweans' Exist? Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2009 This book examines the triumphs and tribulations of the Zimbabwean national project providing a radical and critical analysis of the fossilisation of Zimbabwean nationalism against the wider context of African nationalism in general The book departs radically from the common praise texts in seriously engaging with the darker aspects of nationalism including its failure to create the nation as people and to install democracy and a culture of human rights The author examines how the various people inhabiting the lands between the Limpopo and Zambezi Rivers entered history and how violence became a central aspect of the national project of organising Zimbabweans into a collectivity in pursuit of a political end Resilience and Sustainability in Urban Africa

Innocent Chirisa, Andrew Chigudu, 2021-08-02 Resilience has become a very topical issue transcending many spheres and sectors of sustainable urban development This book presents a resilience framework for sustainable cities and towns in Africa The rise in informal settlements is due to the urban planning practices in most African cities that rarely reflect the realities of urban life and environment for urban development Aspects of places people and process are central to the concept of urban resilience and sustainable urban growth It stems from the observation that urban vulnerability is on the increase in Zimbabwe and beyond In history disasters have adversely affected nations across the world inflicting wide ranging losses on one hand while on the other hand creating development opportunities for urban communities Cooperation in disaster management is a strategy for minimising losses and uplifting the affected urban settlements The significance of urban planning and design in the growth and development of sustainable urban centres is well documented Urbanisation has brought with it challenges that most developing countries such as Zimbabwe are not equipped to handle This has been accompanied by problems such as overpopulation overcrowding shortages of resources and the growth of slum settlements There need is to seriously consider urban planning and design in order to come up with contemporary designs that are resilient to current urban challenges There are major gaps in urban resilience building for instance in Harare and the local authority needs to prioritise investment in resilient urban infrastructure Biblical Studies, Theology, Religion and Philosophy

N. Amanze, 2012-06-28 This book introduces the study of Biblical studies theology religion and philosophy from an African perspective The book comprises twenty six chapters divided into four sections The first section deals with Biblical studies the second with theology the third with religion and the fourth with philosophy The contributions are from 20 eminent scholars from African and Caribbean universities Hostile Money Paul

Wilson, 2019-05-23 Money has the power to make nations and fuel wars It is both the subject of diplomacy and the tool of those seeking to overthrow hostile regimes at home and abroad Germany's hyperinflation following the First World War has entered the public consciousness as an extreme example of what can happen to a currency in conflict What is not widely known is that it is by no means the worst case of war induced hyperinflation Hostile Money looks at the impact of war and revolution on national currencies from Rome's civil war in the first century BC to the twenty first century invasions of

Afghanistan and Iraq by American led forces and the economic sanctions and cyberwarfare of today Subtle Agroecologies Julia Wright,2021-06-29 This book is about the invisible or subtle nature of food and farming and also about the nature of existence Everything that we know and do not know about the physical world has a subtle counterpart which has been scarcely considered in modernist farming practice and research If you think this book isn't for you if it appears more important to attend to the pressing physical challenges the world is facing before having the luxury of turning to such subtleties then think again For it could be precisely this worldview the one prioritises the physical material dimension of reality that helped get us into this situation in the first place Perhaps we need a different worldview to get us out This book makes a foundational contribution to the discipline of Subtle Agroecologies a nexus of indigenous epistemologies multidisciplinary advances in wave based and ethereal studies and the science of sustainable agriculture Not a farming system in itself Subtle Agroecologies superimposes a non material dimension upon existing materially based agroecological farming systems Bringing together 43 authors from 12 countries and five continents from the natural and social sciences as well as the arts and humanities this multi contributed book introduces the discipline explaining its relevance and potential contribution to the field of Agroecology Research into Subtle Agroecologies may be described as the systematic study of the nature of the invisible world as it relates to the practice of agriculture and to do this through adapting and innovating with research methods in particular with those of a more embodied nature with the overall purpose of bringing and maintaining balance and harmony Such research is an open minded inquiry its grounding being the lived experiences of humans working on and with the land over several thousand years to the present By reclaiming and reinterpreting the perennial relationship between humans and nature the implications would revolutionise agriculture heralding a new wave of more sustainable farming techniques changing our whole relationship with nature to one of real collaboration rather than control and ultimately transforming ourselves Displacement Economies in Africa Amanda Hammar,2014-05-08 Large scale displacement whether caused by war state related political or development projects different forms of political violence structural crisis or even natural disasters evokes many stereotyped assumptions about those forcibly displaced or emplaced At the same time there is a problematic lack of attention paid to the diversity of actors strategies and practices that reshape the world in the face and chronic aftermath of dramatic moments of violent dislocation In this highly original volume based on empirical case studies from across sub Saharan Africa the authors reveal the paradoxical effects both intended and unexpected that displacement produces and that manifest themselves in displacement economies An important contribution to a topic of growing scholarly and policy interest The Politics of Laughter in the Social Media Age Shepherd Mpofu,2021-11-03 The Politics of Laughter in the Social Media Age Perspectives from the Global South brings to critical and intellectual attention the role of humour in the digital era in the Global South Many citizens of the Global South live disempowered and precarious lives Digital media and humour as chapters in the volume demonstrate have empowered these citizens through engagement with power and their peers enabling a pursuit of a better future Contributors to the volume while alive to challenges associated with the digital divide highlight the potentials of social media and humour to engage and seek redress on issues such as corruption human rights violations racism and sexism Contributors expertly analyse memes videos cartoons and other social media texts to demonstrate how citizens mimic disrupt ridicule and challenge status quo This book caters for academics and students in media and communication studies political studies sociology and Global South studies

National Healing, Integration and Reconciliation in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, 2019-12-06 This book brings together scholars from diverse backgrounds to provide interdisciplinary perspectives on national healing integration and reconciliation in Zimbabwe Taking into account the complex nature of healing across moral political economic cultural psychological and spiritual dimensions of communities and the nation the chapters discuss approaches disparities tensions and solutions to healing and reconciliation within a multidisciplinary framework Arguing that Zimbabwe's development agenda is severely compromised by the dominance of violence and militancy the contributors analyse the challenges possibilities and opportunities for national healing This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies conflict and reconciliation and development studies

Cultures of Change in Contemporary Zimbabwe Oliver Nyambi, Tendai Mangena, Gibson Ncube, 2021-11-04 This book investigates how culture reflects change in Zimbabwe focusing predominantly on Mnangagwa's 2017 coup but also uncovering deeper roots for how renewal and transition are conceived in the country Since Emmerson Mnangagwa ousted Robert Mugabe in 2017 he has been keen to define his Second Republic or New Dispensation with a rhetoric of change and a rejection of past political and economic cultures This multi and interdisciplinary volume looks to the social media language discourse theatre images political speeches and literary fiction and non fiction to see how they have reflected on this time of unprecedented upheaval The book argues that themes of self renewal stretch right back to the formative years of the ZANU PF and that despite the longevity of Mugabe's tenure the latest transition can be seen as part of a complex and protracted layering of postcolonial social economic and political changes Providing an innovative investigation of how political change in Zimbabwe is reflected on in cultural texts and products this book will be of interest to researchers across African history literature politics culture and post colonial studies

Labour and Economic Change in Southern Africa c.1900-2000 Rory Pilosof, Andrew Cohen, 2021-06-03 This book explores the social and economic development of Zimbabwe Zambia and Malawi over the course of the twentieth century These three countries have long shared and interconnected pasts All three were drawn into the British Empire at a similar time and the formation of the ill fated Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland formally linked these countries together for a decade in the mid twentieth century This formal political relationship created dynamics that resulted in yet closer economic and social links After Federation the economic realities of industry transport and labour supplies meant that these three countries continued to be intricately interconnected Yet despite these connected pasts comparative work on the economic histories of Malawi Zambia and Zimbabwe and how these change over time is rare This book addresses the gap by providing the first comprehensive collection of labour and census data across the twentieth century for these three countries The different economic models and performances of these states offer good comparison allowing researchers to look at different models of development and how these played out over the long term The book provides data on population growth and change industrial and occupational structure and the various shifts in what the economically active population did It will be useful for historians economists development studies scholars and non governmental organisations working on twentieth century and contemporary southern Africa
