Nolo's Essential Guide to Child Custody and Support Emily Doskow, 2020-11-30 Custody and Support Get the Answers You Need When you're getting divorced you can make a tough time easier for yourself and your children if you work with the other parent to agree on a custody plan and child support. If you can't resolve these issues you'll have to head to court and ask a judge to decide for you. Either way Nolo's Essential Guide to Child Custody Support can help. You'll learn how negotiation and mediation can keep costs down and improve future dealings with your ex where to find your state's child support guidelines how judges make custody decisions how to enforce and change custody and support orders how court trials work how Covid 19 is affecting custody arrangements and family court hearings and when you need a lawyer and how to work with one. You'll also find specifics about each state's laws including what factors courts consider when they rule on custody arrangements and what happens when one parent wants to move away with the children. Commercial Aviation:

Program Aimed at High-Risk Parent Abductors Could Aid in Preventing Abductions, International Parental Child Abduction, 1990 Voyaging With Kids Behan Gifford, Sara Dawn Johnson, Michael Robertson, 2015-09-18 A treasure trove of useful well-organized information on sea-going parenting. Gary Cap'n Fatty Goodlander, Author of Buy Outfit and Sail. Choosing a boat that is right for your family, handling the naysayers, keeping your children safe, healthy and entertained afloat: this inspirational and comprehensive guide may be just what you need to turn your dream into a reality. The three authors, who have each voyaged thousands of miles with children on board, provide a factual and balanced look at the realities of family life on the sea. From their own experience and with information from interviews with dozens of other voyaging parents, they discuss caring for an infant on board, handling the changing needs of children as they grow, education options, ensuring parents find the private time to keep their relationships in tune, and helping children make the eventual transition back to shore life. Added to the authors' voices are sidebars from other cruising parents with specialized information on subjects as diverse as handling special diets and how your children can keep in touch with friends around the world. A unique bonus chapter, written by a dozen former cruising kids, looks at the long-term effects of breaking away from shoreside normalcy. A substantial appendix of resources provides valuable further information on the subjects covered in this book. It is said that every parent inflicts their lifestyle choices on their children. Read this book to find why heading out to sea with your children may be the most rewarding infliction of all. Unequal Profession Meera E. Deo, 2023-05-25 A study of the experiences of women of color law school faculty and the effect of race and gender on legal education. This book is the first formal empirical investigation into the law faculty experience using a distinctly intersectional lens, examining both the personal and professional lives of law faculty members. Comparing the professional and personal experiences of women of color professors with white women, white men, and men of color faculty from assistant professor through dean emeritus, Unequal Profession explores how the race and gender of individual legal academics affects not only their individual and collective experience but also legal education as a whole Drawing on quantitative and qualitative empirical data Meera E Deo reveals how race and gender intersect to create profound implications for women of color law faculty members presenting unique challenges as well as opportunities to improve educational and professional outcomes in legal education Deo shares the powerful stories of law faculty who find themselves confronting intersectional discrimination and implicit bias in the form of silencing mansplaining and the presumption of incompetence to name a few Through hiring teaching colleague interaction and tenure and promotion Deo brings the experiences of diverse faculty to life and proposes several mechanisms to increase diversity within legal academia and to improve the experience of all faculty members Praise for Unequal Profession Fascinating shocking and infuriating Meera Deo s careful qualitative research exposes the institutional practices and cultural norms that maintain a separate and unequal race gender order even within the privileged ranks of tenure track law professors With riveting quotes from faculty across a range of institutional and social positions Unequal Profession powerfully reminds us that we must do better I saw my own career in this book and you might too Angela P Harris University of California Davis A powerful account of inequality in legal academia Quantitative data and compelling narratives bring to life the challenges and roadblocks in gaining not just entry and tenure but also respect for the voices of minority women within the academy There are no easy remedies but reading this book is a good place to start for lawyers and law professors to understand what minority women face and which practices can increase the odds of success Bryant G Garth University of California Irvine Unequal Profession should be mandatory reading for everyone in legal academia By providing concrete evidence of systemic discrimination Meera Deo illuminates a long standing problem needing to be remedied Sarah Deer University of Kansas

Summerfield,2018-07-17 A Man Comes from Someplace is a story of a lost world a story in history of a multi generational Jewish family from a shtetl in Ukraine before WWI As cultural study the narrative draws upon the oral stories of the author s father family letters eyewitness accounts immigration papers etc and cultural research The narrative becomes a transformative space to re present story as performance a meta narrative and an auto ethnography for the author to reflect upon the effects of the stories on her own life as daughter of a survivor and as teacher scholar Summerfield raises questions about immigration survival resilience place and identity how story functions as antidote to trauma a means of making sense of the world and as resistance the refusal to be silenced or erased the insistence we know the past and remember those who came before In 2011 she found her way back to the place her family came from in Ukraine The book is now being read by students in their ESL classes in Novokoonstantinov Ukraine Survival Skills for the New Elementary Teacher

Jeannette M. Konior,2005-03-27 Every year thousands of new teachers graduate all hoping to obtain their dream job in the school district of their choice They have been given a great education at their respective universities In addition to the usual academics they have learned educational theory development lesson planning methodology etc But very few learn about the more practical side of education in the classroom the tricks of the trade Student teaching provides an opportunity to learn some of these things however not all circumstances come up in one or two experiences In most cases the new teacher enters the work force a true novice whose confidence is shaken when it becomes obvious how much is not known This book concentrates on elementary education Here you will find answers to questions you may have asked on classroom management discipline organization testing and grading talking to parents and much more The teacher is the catalyst who puts all these things in motion The teacher as classroom leader must be decisive compassionate ready clear and to the point and above all professional Portals of Promise Debbie Pushor,the Parent Engagement Collaborative the Parent

Engagement Collaborative,2013-10-30 Working with parents is a significant aspect of educators roles yet it is rare to find curriculum in teacher education programs designed to prepare individuals to consider in philosophical theoretical and pedagogical ways who they will be in relationship with parents and why Schools therefore remain hierarchical structures in which parents are marginalized in relation to decisions affecting teaching and learning This book begins with Pushor s conceptualization of a curriculum of parents a curriculum which explores beliefs and assumptions about parents a vision for education in which educators work alongside parents and family members in the learning and care of children and a desire for reform She describes a curriculum of parents in the form of three graduate teacher education courses which she lived out in relationship with students Graduate students then capture their experiences immersed in this curriculum what they each took up how it shaped their knowledge attitudes and practices and how they lived it out as they returned to their classrooms schools and early learning centres This book is a storied account of their intense immersion in a curriculum of parents and the resulting impact living that curriculum has had on who they are in relation to parents and families It is an honest and vulnerable account of their shared and individual journeys They puzzle over the complexities and the successes of their work and the resulting impact This is not a book of best practice but an invitation to other educators to consider as they did what they do and how it could be different
