Caring for Mom and Dad Susan Stein-Roggenbuck, 2023-10-05 Throughout the twentieth century the United States implemented social policies targeting the needs of dependent parents parents who were no longer able to work but lacked sufficient financial resources to support themselves These parent dependency policies either encouraged or required family members particularly adult children to provide support as an alternative to government benefits Debates over how best to support aging parents centered on conceptualizations of dependency and the moral obligations family owed their parents Measures of dependency often inhibited aging Americans access to benefits they needed focusing instead on ensuring that they were in fact dependent and that other family resources were not available Susan Stein Roggenbuck highlights this understudied aspect of the modern US welfare state highlighting the limited support provided to aging parents and the hardship they and their adult children endured in the efforts to minimize public expenditures

Gender and Politics in the Age of Letter-Writing, 1750-2000 Máire Cross, 2017-05-15 Letters have long been an outlet for political expression whether they articulate the personal politics of the daily routine or the political views of individuals who witness or participate in dramatic events In addition letters can be unusually revealing records of the relations between men and women Though letters have frequently been studied as a privileged space for literary social and cultural expression the three dimensional relationship of politics gender and letters has not been the focus of an entire volume The nineteen essays in this collection examine how the gendered nature of political literacy is revealed over a 250 year period through letter writing whether the writer is famous or unknown the wife of a prominent politician or activist a political prisoner or political militant Ranging wide in terms of subject matter and geography the contributors examine correspondence that ponders familial concerns as well as letters providing political commentary on the effects of war or revolution on everyday life Among the impressive group of international scholars are Jim Allen Clare Brant Edith Gelles Jane Rendall and Si n Reynolds governance is a complex idea that is often inappropriately simplified as a cookbook of recommended measures to improve financial performance. Meta studies of published research show that the supposed benign effects of these measures – independent directors or highly incentivised executives – are at best context specific. There is thus a challenge to explain the meaning, purpose and importance of corporate governance. This volume addresses these issues. The issues discussed centre on relationships within the firm (e.g. between labour, managers and investors) and relationships outside the firm that affect consumers or the environment. The essays in this collection are the considered selection by the editors and the contributors themselves of what are seen as some of the most weighty and urgent issues that connect the corporation and society at large in developed economies with established property rights. The essays are to be read in dialogue with each other, giving a richer understanding than could be obtained by shepherding all contributions into a single mould. Nevertheless, taken together, they demonstrate a shared sense of deep concern that the corporate governance agenda has been and still is on the wrong track. The contributors individually and collectively identify in this compendium both a research programme and a platform for change.

Corporate Governance in Contention Ciaran Driver, Grahame Thompson, 2018-06-10 Corporate

The Government's proposed child maintenance reforms Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Work and Pensions Committee, 2011-07-04. Government's proposed child maintenance Reforms. Fifth report of session 2010-12 Vol 2 Oral and written Evidence. REINCARNATE! - A Love Letter From THE PHOENIX Shreshtha Jha, 2025-08-18. The book has been written to uplift the depressed energy that gets burnt and gradually evaporates, combating the conservative mentalities surrounding the purehearted individuals. Being pure in heart is a blessing, but if it is not accompanied by a sharp head and strong will to claim your spotlight, your birth and worth both will get wasted. This is a four-book series that has been written with every honest effort to highlight the still-existing hypocrisy in society with the self-proclaimed lawmakers of society who breathe authority even when just sought a perspective, irrespective of the fact whether they possess any knowledge about the topic being discussed or whether ever lived a different life with the new generation of this new era. And due to these shallow creatures, lives of the people who are born with the most amazing combination of zeal and zest to pursue and accomplish stunning peaks in personal and professional spheres get tossed upside down, making their lives a living hell. To those who are suffering, it is time to put on the armour and slay down the evil in your life. Change in head should precede change in heart if a worthy life is the goal.

Contemporary Issues in Finance and Insolvency Law Volume 1 Leon Trakman,Robert Walters,2022-08-17 There is increasing regulatory interdependence amongst Central East and South East Asian European and North American financial markets and these markets account for over one third of the world s population and global financial markets As Asian markets become more integral to global financial economy more cohesive compatible and integrated insolvency and restructuring laws are essential This two volume work reviews why we should internationalise current cross border insolvency and how we could restructure laws to address inadequacies The two volumes evaluate international regulatory reforms directed at detecting and managing cross border insolvency and restructuring crises across the entire economy including financial markets The authors call for schemes of arrangements and letters of comfort to be formally accepted as international legal tools The work also assesses recent but as yet largely unregulated developments in financial agreements particularly the use of close out netting provisions that serve as significant protective mechanisms prior to the declaration of an insolvency It discusses international arbitration data protection and artificial intelligence in crossborder insolvency and restructuring Finally the book seeks a meaningful balance between self regulation through financial contracts and other party practices and regulation imposed by governments and international financial regulators This extensive work will be a useful reference for legal practitioners policy makers and scholars working on financial regulation and international financial laws

The Parent Track Christina DeRoche,Ellie D. Berger,2017-02-24 The Parent Track provides an in depth understanding of parenting in academia from diverse perspectives gender age race ethnicity marital status sexual orientation and at different phases of a parent s academic career This collection not only arrives at a comprehensive understanding of parenthood and academia it reveals the shifting ideologies surrounding the challenges of negotiating work and family balance in this context Earlier research on parenting has documented the ways in which women and men experience and subsequently negotiate their roles as parents in the context of the workplace and the home Particular attention has been paid to the negotiation of familial and childcare responsibilities the division of labour the availability of family friendly policies social constructions of motherhood and fatherhood power relations and gender roles and inequality Studies on the experience of parenthood within the context of academia however have lacked diversity and failed to provide qualitative accounts from scholars of all genders at varying points in their academic careers who have or are planning to have children This book addresses that gap FCC Record United States. Federal Communications Commission,2012 Caregiving Systems Steven H. Zarit,Leonard I. Pearlin,K. Warner Schaie,2019-02-21 Caregiving has emerged as a critical issue in the second half of the life cycle With the growth of the older population there have been dramatic increases in the number of people needing care and assistance The responsibility for care typically falls on families at a time when they have limited resources to meet these needs At a societal level the need for care for growing numbers of disabled elders poses a major challenge for how to organize supportive services in an efficient and responsive system Bringing together multiple perspectives on caregiving the authors explore informal and formal family caregiving and the pivotal issue of how these systems interface and interact An overview of this variation is provided by examining family caregiving from three perspectives the effects of culture on helping patterns and family responsibility how different disabilities affect patterns of family care and longitudinal perspectives on the impact that caregiving has on family members Child Support Report ,1997
