Vietnam ,2024-09-09 In the late 1980s most of the world still associated Vietnam with resistance and war hardship refugees and a mismanaged planned economy During the 1990s by contrast major countries began to see Vietnam as both a potential partner and a strategically significant actor particularly in the competition between the United States and an emerging China and international investors began to see Vietnam as a land of opportunity Sri Lanka Education Sector Assessment Halil Dundar,Benoit Millot,Michelle Riboud,Mari Shojo,Harsha Aturupane,Sangeeta Goyal,Dhushyanth Raju,2017-06-16 A country s education system plays a pivotal role in promoting economic growth and shared prosperity Sri Lanka has enjoyed high school attainment and enrollment rates for several decades However it stillfaces major challenges in the education sector and these challenges undermine the country s inclusivegrowthgoal and its ambition to become a competitive upper middle income country The authors of Sri Lanka Education Sector Assessment Achievements Challenges and Policy Options offer athorough review of Sri Lanka s education sector from early childhood education through higher education With this book they attempt to answer three questions How is Sri Lanka s education system performing especially with respect to participation rates learningoutcomes and labor market outcomes How can the country address the challenges at each stage of the education process taking into accountboth country and international experience and also best practices Which policy actions should Sri Lanka make a priority for the short and medium term The authors identify the most critical constraints on performance and present strategic priorities and policyoptions to address them To attain inclusive growth and become globally competitive Sri Lanka needs toembark on integrated reforms across all levels of education These reforms must address both short termskill shortages and long term productivity As Sri Lanka moves up the development ladder the prioritiesof primary secondary and postsecondary education must be aligned to meet the increasingly complexeducation and skill requirements Trust, Voice, and Incentives Hana Brix, Ellen Lust,Michael Woolcock,2015-05-29 This report examines the role of incentives trust and engagement as critical determinants of service delivery performance in MENA countries Focusing on education and health the report illustrates how the weak external and internal accountability undermines policy implementation and service delivery performance and how such a cycle of poor performance can be counteracted Case studies of local success reveal the importance of both formal and informal accountability relationships and the role of local leadership in inspiring and institutionalizing incentives toward better service delivery performance Enhancing services for MENA citizens requires forging a stronger social contract among public servants citizens and service providers while empowering communities and local leaders to find best fit solutions Learning from the variations within countries especially the outstanding local successes can serve as a solid basis for new ideas and inspiration for improving service delivery Such learning may help the World Bank Group and other donors as well as national and local leaders and civil society in developing ways to enhance the trust voice and incentives for service delivery to meet citizens needs and expectations

Social Mobility Lee Elliot Major, Stephen Machin, 2018-09-27 What are the effects of decreasing social mobility How does education help and hinder us in improving our life chances Why are so many of us stuck on the same social rung as our parents Apart from the USA Britain has the lowest social mobility in the Western world The lack of movement in who gets where in society particularly when people are stuck at the bottom and the top costs the nation dear both in terms of the unfulfilled talents of those left behind and an increasingly detached elite disinterested in improvements that benefit the rest of society This book analyses cutting edge research into how social mobility has changed in Britain over the years the shifting role of schools and universities in creating a fairer future and the key to what makes some countries and regions so much richer in opportunities bringing a clearer understanding of what works and how we can better shape our future
