Ms Naidoo is a citizen of a war-torn country in Africa. She fled her country of birth and entered South Africa after a long journey. Ms Naidoo applies for asylum at the Department of Home Affairs in terms of section 21(1) of the Refugees Act 130 of 1998. Her application for asylum is rejected by the authorised refugee status determination officer without any input by Ms Naidoo. No reasons for the rejection were given, but it later transpired that the rejection was based on the informal notes of the refugee reception officer, working in the refugee reception office, responsible for issuing her with the asylum seeker permit. From these notes the impression might be gained that the decision had been influenced by certain irrelevant factors suggesting bias on the part of the administrator. The Refugees Act makes provision for review by the Standing Committee and appeal to the Appeal Board of a decision by a refugee status determination officer.

fulfilled its potential to emerge as an attractive jurisdiction for international arbitration. Now however with the adoption in 2013 of an entirely new arbitration law and the accompanying overhaul of the rules of CEPANI the Belgian Centre for Arbitration and Mediation Brussels is poised to progress rapidly towards the top rank of European and global seats of arbitration. This is the first comprehensive treatise in English to provide practical guidance to arbitration practitioners in house counsel and judges on how to conduct arbitrations in Belgium. To facilitate its use it is structured as an article by article commentary on the 2013 Law addressing the following aspects of each article: the purpose of the provision, comparison with the UNCITRAL Model Law on Commercial Arbitration, party autonomy, issues of costs and interplay with the rules of other major arbitration institutions and the New York Convention. The core of each article commentary is an in depth analysis that provides recommendations to practitioners and judges. The analysis goes beyond the contents of the commented article and deals with related issues that are not addressed expressly in the Law but may be of relevance for the issues covered in the provision in question. Arbitration professionals will find here convincing evidence of the liberal system for arbitration now prevailing in Belgium along with rules that reflect the most recent trends in international practice. The description and analysis offered are sure to contribute to the recognition of Belgium as a global arbitral jurisdiction.

The Rhetorical Invention of America's National Security State Marouf Hasian Jr., Sean Lawson, Megan D. McFarlane, 2015-07-29. The Rhetorical Invention of America's National Security State examines the rhetoric and discourse produced by and constitutive of America's national security state. Hasian, Lawson and McFarlane illustrate the importance of rhetoric to the expansion of the American national security state in the post 9/11 era through their examination of the global war on terrorism, enhanced interrogation techniques, drone crew stress activities, of Edward Snowden, rise of Special Forces and popular representations of counterterrorism. The coauthors contend this expansion was not the result of lone imperial executives or a nefarious state within a state but was co-produced by elite and non-elite Americans alike who not only condoned but also in many cases demanded the expansion of the national security state. This work will be of interest to scholars in communication studies and political science.

A History of the 1957 Federation of Malaya Constitution Joseph M. Fernando, 2024-12-09. Fernando examines important aspects of the drafting of 1957 Federation of Malaya constitution related to the system of governance, division of legislative and executive powers, the conceptualisation of citizenship and the roles of the judiciary and election commission. The book sheds new light on the balances that the Reid Commission sought to embed in the constitution and the historical constitutional debates and discussions which greatly shaped the framing of the new federal constitution between 1956 and 1957. Drawing on historical evidence mainly from declassified primary constitutional documents it analyses the submissions, debates and discussions among the framers and various interest groups during the drafting of the constitution between 1956 and 1957 to discern more clearly the intentions of the framers on many aspects of governance and distribution of powers embedded in the constitutional provisions. This book reveals more deeply the nature and complexity of the constitutional issues faced by the framers and how they attempted to reach compromises between the various interest groups in Malaya It is a valuable resource for scholars and academics of Malaysian Asian and Commonwealth constitutional history as well as those interested in history law political science and important aspects of governance and distribution of powers in the system of parliamentary democracy
