Linguistic Form and Interpretation Johannes Dölling,Tatjana Heyde-Zybatow,Martin Schäfer,2013-12-06 This volume addresses the problem of how language expresses conceptual information on event structures and how such information can be reconstructed in the interpretation process The papers present important new insights into recent semantic and syntactic research on the topic The volume deals with the following problems in detail event structure and syntactic construction event structure and modification event structure and plurality event structure and temporal relation event structure and situation aspect and event structure and language ontology. Importantly the topic is discussed not only on the basis of English and German but on the basis of other languages including Mandarin, Japanese, Korean, Indonesian, and Igbo as well. This volume thus provides solid evidence towards clarifying the empirical use of event based analyses. Yes, It's a Scrapbook! Donna Downey, 2008. As a contributing editor to Simple Scrapbooks magazine, Donna Downey redefines traditional scrapbooking and inspires others to open their eyes to dozens of unique possibilities for celebrating life with pictures and written words. She urges people to remember that scrapbooking is less about committing to a hobby and more about sharing the stories of everyday life in any creative medium. Presenting the best of her off the page albums, journals, and photo displays, this step by step guide has more than 65 ways to capture meaningful memories. Donna shares one of a kind ways to use ordinary items such as using a coin folder screen to display mini photos from a family trip and a muffin tin to show photos of her daughter baking cookies. Most projects can be finished in an afternoon or so and they invite frequent browsing. They can be displayed in the home or given to family and friends. Either way people are sure to say, "Wow! Is this a scrapbook?"
