The Vietnam War

1954–1975

Why It Matters

The Vietnam War created very bitter divisions within the United States. Supporters argued that patriotism demanded that communism be halted. Opponents argued that intervening in Vietnam was immoral. Many young people protested or resisted the draft. Victory was not achieved, although more than 58,000 American soldiers died. After the war, the nation had many wounds to heal.

The Impact Today

Changes brought about by the war are still evident in the United States today.

- The nation is reluctant to commit troops overseas.
- The War Powers Act limits a president's power to involve the nation in war.

The American Republic Since 1877 Video The Chapter 25 video, "Vietnam: A Different War," explores the causes and the impact of this longest war in American history.
