School's Choice Wagma Mommandi,Kevin Welner,2021 Access issues are pivotal to almost all charter school tensions and debates How well are these schools performing Are they segregating and stratifying Are they public and democratic Are they fairly funded Can apparent successes be scaled up Answers to all these core questions hinge on how access to charter schools is shaped This book describes the incentives and pressures on charter schools to restrict access and examines how charters navigate those pressures explaining access restricting practices in relation to the ecosystem within which charter schools are created It also explains how charters have sometimes responded by resisting the pressures and sometimes by surrendering to them The text presents analyses of 13 different types of practices around access each of which shapes the school s enrollment The authors conclude by offering recommendations for how states and authorizers can address access related inequities that arise in the charter sector School s Choice provides timely information on critical academic and policy issues that will come into play as charter school policy continues to evolve Book Features Examines how charter schools control who gains and retains access Explores policies and practices that undermine equitable admission and encourage opportunity hoarding Offers a set of policy recommendations at the state and federal level to address access related issues

Schools on Trial Nikhil Goyal, 2016-02-16 Schools on Trial is an all in attack on the American way of education and a hopeful blueprint for change by one of the most passionate and certainly youngest writers on this subject Are America s schools little more than cinder block gulags that spawn vicious cliques and bullying negate creativity and true learning and squelch curiosity in their inmates um students Nikhil Goyal a journalist and activist all of twenty years old whom The Washington Post has dubbed a future education secretary and Forbes has named to its 30 Under 30 list definitely thinks so In this book he both offers a scathing indictment of our teach to the test while killing the spirit educational assembly line and maps out a path for all of our schools to harness children s natural aptitude for learning by creating an atmosphere conducive to freedom and creativity He prescribes an inspiring educational future that is thoroughly democratic and experiential and one that utilizes the entire community as a classroom

Breaking Barriers Stanley S. Litow, Tina Kelley, 2021 Breaking Barriers shows how to redesign high schools so that all students can move on to college and successful careers In a negation of the American Dream a child s zip code is currently a far better predictor of success than hard work intelligence or resilience This book tells the story of a school model that focuses on equity and works to prove that all young people can achieve academic excellence given the right support P TECH Pathways in Technology Early College High School combines public high schools and community colleges in partnership with employers providing both opportunity and support for all students This innovative and effective approach eliminates barriers to replication by engaging all stakeholders The first P TECH which opened in a low income Brooklyn neighborhood is now a model for school reform Praised by President Obama and heads of nations its story is told through the voices of students who have shattered the myths about which students can succeed Breaking Barriers is a compelling read It shows that a clear pathway from school to college to career goes beyond an aspiration it s achievable and for all students The global success of P Tech schools is something education government and business leaders need to learn about and get behind Arne Duncan former United States Secretary of Education Breaking Barriers is a must read The P Tech story shows that quality schools leading to not just a high school diploma but college completion and career success are critical to our future This is the kind of opportunity and support that must be provided to all students regardless of income or race Darren Walker president Ford Foundation
