points would be of interest and value and old players will therefore pardon what may appear trite in the next few pages A beginner in foot ball should do two things He should read the rules and he should if possible watch the practice If the latter be impossible he and his mates must after having read the rules start in and with eleven men on a side play according to their own interpretation of these rules When differences of opinion arise as to the meaning of any rule a letter addressed to some one of the players upon prominent teams will almost always elicit a ready and satisfactory answer The first thing to be done in starting the practice is to provide regarding the accessories of the game which in foot ball are of the simplest kind The field should be marked out with ordinary lime lines enclosing a space 330 feet long and 160 feet wide About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
