This collection of essays offers global perspectives on feminist utopia and dystopia in speculative literature, film, and art, working from a range of intersectional approaches to examine key works and genres in both their specific cultural context and a wider global epistemological critical background. The international, diverse contributions, including a Foreword by Gregory Claeys, draw upon posthumanism, speculative realism, speculative feminism, object-oriented ontology, new materialisms, and post-Anthropocene studies to propose alternative perspectives on gender, environment, as well as alternate futures and pasts rendered in fiction. Instead of binary divisions into utopia vs. dystopia, the collection explores genres transcending this dichotomy scrutinising the oeuvre of both established and emerging writers directors and critics This is a rich and unique collection suitable for scholars and students studying feminist literature media cultural studies and women s and gender studies

Affect, Emotion, and Children's Literature Kristine Moruzi,Michelle Smith,Elizabeth Bullen,2017-09-01 This volume explores the relationship between representation affect and emotion in texts for children and young adults It demonstrates how texts for young people function as tools for emotional socialisation enculturation and political persuasion The collection provides an introduction to this emerging field and engages with the representation of emotions ranging from shame grief and anguish to compassion and happiness as psychological and embodied states and cultural constructs with ideological significance It also explores the role of narrative empathy in relation to emotional socialisation and to the ethics of representation in relation to politics social justice and identity categories including gender ethnicity disability and sexuality Addressing a range of genres including advice literature novels picture books and film this collection examines contemporary historical and canonical children s and young adult literature to highlight the variety of approaches to emotion and affect in these texts and to consider the ways in which these approaches offer new perspectives on these texts The individual chapters apply a variety of theoretical approaches and perspectives including cognitive poetics narratology and poststructuralism to the analysis of affect and emotion in children s and young adult literature

Girls on Fire Sarah Hentges,2018-04-18 Under the threat of climate change corruption inequality and injustice Americans may feel they are living in a dystopian novel come to life Like many American narratives dystopian stories often focus on males as the agents of social change With a focus on the intersections of race gender class sexuality and power the author analyzes the themes issues and characters in young adult YA dystopian fiction featuring female protagonists the Girls on Fire who inspire progressive transformation for the future

Rooms Lauren Oliver,2014-09-23 The New York Times bestselling author of Before I Fall and the Delirium trilogy makes her brilliant adult debut with this mesmerizing story in the tradition of The Lovely Bones Her Fearful Symmetry and The Ocean at the End of the Lane a tale of family ghosts secrets and mystery in which the lives of the living and the dead intersect in shocking surprising and moving ways Wealthy Richard Walker has just died leaving behind his country house full of rooms packed with the detritus of a lifetime His estranged family bitter ex wife Caroline troubled teenage son Trenton and unforgiving daughter Minna have arrived for their inheritance But the Walkers are not alone Prim Alice and the cynical Sandra long dead former residents bound to the house linger within its claustrophobic walls Jostling for space memory and supremacy they observe the family trading barbs and reminiscences about their past lives Though their voices cannot be heard Alice and Sandra speak through the house itself in the hiss of the radiator a creak in the stairs the dimming of a light bulb The living and dead are each haunted by painful truths that will soon surface with explosive force When a new ghost appears and Trenton begins to communicate with her the spirit and human worlds collide with cataclysmic results Elegantly constructed and brilliantly paced Rooms is an enticing and imaginative ghost story and a searing family drama that is as haunting as it is resonant
