Veiled in Death Stephanie Blackmoore, 2020-09-29 Wedding planner Mallory Shepard doesn't have time to organize her own nuptials because right now she's engaged in solving a murder. When Mallory discovers some old lace at a Port Quincy antique shop, she knows it'll make a perfect headpiece. But she's barely gotten it out of the store before Helene Pierce tears it from her hands. Helene claims it's a family heirloom that went missing when her late husband died in a hit and run twenty-five years ago. The conflict gets more complicated when the veil is attributed to none other than famed seamstress Betsy Ross. Mallory may have a genuine museum piece on her hands, but meanwhile Independence Day is right around the corner and she has to host the town's Revolutionary War re-enactment. Then it becomes clear there's a bigger mystery behind all this history when a local woman is murdered with a musket and Mallory's investigation could set off some fireworks.

London Wallpapers Treve Rosoman, 2009 London Wallpapers first published in 1992 has long been out of print. In this new revised edition, there is a substantially enlarged list of wallpaper manufacturers in all their various guises: stationers, paper stainers, paper hanging manufacturers, paper hangers, even Thomas William Paul, fancy cabinet maker, a time when the process had achieved its apogee but had not yet been totally replaced by mechanical printing methods. The book describes the method in which rag-based paper was made for wallpaper use, the manner in which wallpaper was printed using hand-carved wooden blocks, with a detailed description of printing flock papers, a fashion for which has recently re-emerged. There is a brief description of the taxes on wallpaper introduced in 1712 and which still govern the normal length of paper today. The various ways that paper were designed and the methods by which wallpaper was hung are also covered. Finally, in the text, there is an examination of how the London wallpaper trade worked, looking briefly at one of the great eighteenth-century paper stainers, Thomas Bromwich, at the Sign of the Golden Lion on Ludgate Hill near St Paul's Churchyard. The book has 16 black and white pictures, mostly of eighteenth-century trade cards used by wallpaper merchants as advertisements and for writing out receipts. Most notably, the book has 40 full-colour plates of London-made wallpapers with descriptions of each paper and the house from which it came.
