Schalley,Susana A. Eisenchlas,2020-06-22 Even a cursory look at conference programs and proceedings reveals a burgeoning interest in the field of social and affective factors in home language maintenance and development To date however research on this topic has been published in piecemeal fashion subsumed under the more general umbrella of bilingualism Within bilingualism research there has been an extensive exploration of linguistic and psycholinguistic perspectives on the one hand and educational practices and outcomes on the other In comparison social and affective factors which lead people to either maintain or shift the language have been under researched This is the first volume that brings together the different strands in research on social and affective factors in home language maintenance and development ranging from the micro level family language policies and practices to the meso level community initiatives and the macro level mainstream educational policies and their implementation The volume showcases a wide distribution across contexts and populations explored Contributors from around the world represent different research paradigms and perspectives providing a rounded overview of the state of the art in this flourishing field Transformative Pedagogical Perspectives on Home Language Use in Classrooms Jules, Janice E.,Belgrave, Korah L.,2020-09-25 Linguists researchers and other practitioners in language education acknowledge that the resolution of language problems associated with breaking down language and cultural barriers that hinder the growth of learners self identities and national identities is ongoing In fact even with decades of research in home language use in the classroom there are still classrooms worldwide where learners are deprived of the opportunity of building their self esteem confidence and autonomy by communicating with their native language The global nature of communication requires speakers to use all the languages in their repertoire effectively thus reinforcing the need to encourage home language use in classrooms Transformative Pedagogical Perspectives on Home Language Use in Classrooms is a cutting edge research publication on the effective use of home language in the classroom that emphasizes the significance of this activity to the success of the overall language development of the learner Particular attention is given to transformative pedagogy and the provision of valuable insights into how the teacher can guide and assist learners in the development of critical thinking skills In addition the book provides content that enables practitioners in language education and parents to explore their roles in assisting children in breaking down the language and cultural barriers that hinder the growth of their self identity and national identity Highlighting topics such as engineering education cultural responsiveness and transformative pedagogy this book is essential for linguists academicians education professionals curriculum designers policymakers administrators instructional designers researchers and students Handbook of Early Language Education Mila Schwartz,2022-03-30 This is the first international and interdisciplinary handbook to offer a comprehensive and an in depth overview of findings from contemporary research theory and practice in early childhood language education in various parts of the world and with different populations The contributions by leading scholars and practitioners are structured to give a survey of the topic highlight its importance and provide a critical stance The book covers preschool ages and looks at children belonging to diverse ethno linguistic groups and experiencing different histories and pathways of their socio linguistic and socio cultural development and early education The languages under the scope of this handbook are identified by the contributors as immigrant languages indigenous endangered heritage regional minority majority and marginalized as well as foreign and second languages all of which are discussed in relation to early language education as the key concept of the handbook In this volume early language education will refer to any kind of setting both formal and informal e g nursery kindergarten early childhood education centers complementary early schooling etc in which language learning within a context of children s sociolinguistic diversity takes place before elementary school Changing the Conventional University Classroom Enakshi Sengupta,Patrick Blessinger,2022-08-01 Changing the Conventional University Classroom highlights the interventions practiced around the world by higher education instructors forced to make necessary changes in the conversion from face to face educational instruction to the use of online and virtual platforms during the COVID pandemic Dynamic Ecologies Neil Murray,Angela Scarino,2014-01-13 This volume provides a fascinating glimpse into the complex language ecologies of Southeast Asia Adopting a relational perspective it considers their significance for the region its peoples the policy and practice of language teaching learning and assessment and the fate of local languages It gives particular prominence to the relationship between English and Chinese it s likely transformation at a time of significant global change and the impact that these two languages and their synergy will have on the place of other languages and dialects Dynamic Ecologies A Relational Perspective on Languages Education in the Asia Pacific Region draws on the research and insights of key scholars in the field and provides case studies that illustrate the impact of relevant language policy in countries including Singapore Malaysia Hong Kong South Korea and Australia Oswaal CTET (CENTRAL TEACHER ELIGIBILITY TEST) 17 Previous Solved Papers Year-wise (2013-2024 July) Paper-II (Classes 6 to 8) Mathematics & Science (For 2025 Exam) Oswaal Editorial Board,2024-07-29 Oswaal CTET CENTRAL TEACHER ELIGIBILITY TEST 17 Previous Solved Papers Year wise 2013 2024 July Paper II Classes 6 to 8 Mathematics Science For 2025 Exam Language, Identity and Diversity in Picturebooks Nicola Daly,2024-10-28 This book presents a range of perspectives on the way language diversity and identity are reflected in New Zealand children s literature based on the published research of Nicola Daly an associate professor in the Division of Education of the University of Waikato and her colleagues The book is organised into two sections The first section examines the use of Te Reo M ori and English in the text of New Zealand picturebooks exploring the linguistic landscape of M ori English bilingual picturebooks The second section The Pedagogical Potential of Picturebooks explores how picturebooks featuring M ori English New Zealand Sign Language NZSL and Pacific languages reflect identity and support diversity in society Research from several educational contexts ranging from kindergarten to university where picturebooks are used to support learning language and learning about language is also discussed Themes of language identity and diversity are explored throughout the two sections and brought together in the concluding chapter s discussion of the power of picturebooks This book will be of interest to scholars in children s literature and education it may also be relevant to scholars in linguistics library and information studies cultural studies and media and communication studies The Politics of English Language Education and Social Inequality Maya Kalyanpur,Padmini Bhuyan Boruah,Sarina Chugani Molina,Sunaina Shenoy,2022-12-30 Based on policy analysis and empirical data this book examines the problematic consequences of colonial legacies of language policies and English language education in the multilingual contexts of the Global South Using a postcolonial lens the volume explores the raciolinguistics of language hierarchies that results in students from low income backgrounds losing their mother tongues without acquiring academic fluency in English Using findings from five major research projects the book analyzes the specific context of India where ambiguous language policies have led to uneasy tensions between the colonial language of English national and state languages and students linguistic diversity is mistaken for cognitive deficits when English is the medium of instruction in schools The authors situate their own professional and personal experiences in their efforts at dismantling postcolonial structures through reflective practice as teacher educators and present solutions of decolonial resistance to linguistic hierarchies that include critical pedagogical alternatives to bilingual education and opportunities for increased teacher agency Ultimately this timely volume will appeal to researchers scholars academics and students in the fields of international and comparative education English and literacy studies and language arts more broadly Those interested in English language learning in low income countries specifically will also find this book to be of benefit to their research

Fundamental Considerations in Technology Mediated Language Assessment Karim Sadeghi,Dan Douglas,2023-04-27 Fundamental Considerations in Technology Mediated Language Assessment aims to address issues such as how the forced integration of technology into second language assessment has shaped our understanding of key traditional concepts like validity reliability washback authenticity ethics fairness test security and more Although computer assisted language testing has been around for more than two decades in the context of high stakes proficiency testing much of language testing worldwide has shifted to at home mode and relies heavily on the mediation of digital technology making its widespread application in classroom settings in response to the COVID 19 outbreak unprecedented Integration of technology into language assessment has brought with it countless affordances and at the same time challenges both theoretically and practically One major theoretical consideration requiring attention is the way technology has contributed to a reconceptualization of major assessment concepts constructs There is very limited literature available on the theoretical underpinnings of technology mediated language assessment This book aims to fill this gap This book will appeal to academic specialists practitioners or professionals in the field of language assessment advanced and or graduate students and a range of scholars or professionals in disciplines like educational technology applied linguistics and teaching English to speakers of other languages TESOL China-Africa Relations Kathryn Batchelor,Xiaoling Zhang,2017-06-26 The recent rapid growth in China s involvement in Africa is being promoted by both Chinese and African leaders as being conducted in a spirit of cooperation friendship and equality In the media and informally however a different less harmonious picture emerges This book explores how China and Africa really regard each other how official images are manufactured and how informal images are nevertheless shaped and put forward The book covers a wide range of areas where China Africa exchange exists including diplomacy technological cooperation sport culture and arts exchange The book also discusses the historical development of the relationship and how it is likely to develop going forward Handbook of Research on Pedagogies and Cultural Considerations for Young English Language Learners Onchwari, Grace,Keengwe, Jared,2017-10-31 In the schools of today English learners are the fastest growing segment of the student population As such it is increasingly imperative to educate these students properly while still practicing inclusion for overall student success The Handbook of Research on Pedagogies and Cultural Considerations for Young English Language Learners is an authoritative research publication on research based theoretical frameworks and best practices for teaching young English language learners Featuring exhaustive coverage on a variety of topics and perspectives such as co teaching inclusion and social awareness this
