

Parenting Styles

6 DIFFERENT PARENTING STYLES

Authoritarian

Disciplines the child often, induces fear and tracks every move. Demanding and low in affection.

Overprotective

Smothers the child with extreme affection without truly connecting. Pretends the child is perfect.

Pressure

Tries to live vicariously through the child, who has to be perfect and achieve. Appearance is key.

Abusive

Emotionally or physically abuses their child, causes confidence issues and has strong negative influence.

Dissociative

Lenient, not present and neglects their child's needs. Can't deal with emotions or connect with their children.

Secure

Affectionate, responsive and low in conflict, but still has demands and boundaries. Guides and regulates child.

Papers On Parenting Styles:

PARENTING STYLE P. Sooriya, 2017-12-30 Parenting is a complex activity that includes many specific behaviors that work individually and together to influence child outcomes Parenting in general terms is what defines how our children behave in different situations respond and react to different scenarios and ultimately the kind of adults that they grow into Most parenting revolves around trying to exert some level of control over our children to make our lives as easy as possible and also to create a harmonious family environment Parenting is not a single activity but the total of approaches and behavioral patterns used to care and groom children

Parenting Styles and Practices Katherine Meltzoff, María Cristina Richaud, Jael Vargas Rubilar, 2025-05-14 Parenting is a dynamic and multifaceted process shaped by history psychology and societal expectations This book provides researchers with a comprehensive exploration of parenting styles their evolution and their impact on child development It investigates the challenges parents face the role of education in fostering communication skills and the self help mechanisms of foster parents Additionally it examines how race and systemic factors influence school choice for black families By integrating theoretical insights and empirical research this volume offers valuable perspectives for academics policymakers and practitioners seeking to understand and enhance parenting practices in diverse contexts This book is an essential resource for those dedicated to advancing knowledge in child development and family studies

Authoritative Parenting Robert E. Larzelere, Amanda Sheffield Morris, Amanda W. Harrist, 2013 Psychologist Diana Baumrind's revolutionary prototype of parenting called authoritative parenting combines the best of various parenting styles In contrast to previous emphases on parental responsiveness alone permissive parenting or on demandingness alone authoritarian parenting authoritative parenting combines high levels of both responsiveness and demandingness The result is an appropriate mix of warm nurturance and firm discipline In this book leading scholars update our thinking about authoritative parenting and address three unresolved issues mechanisms of the style's effectiveness variations of effectiveness across cultures and untangling how parents influence children from how children influence them By integrating perspectives from developmental and clinical psychology the book will inform prevention and intervention efforts to help parents maximize their children's potential

Parenting Across Cultures Helaine Selin, 2013-11-19 There is a strong connection between culture and parenting What is acceptable in one culture is frowned upon in another This applies to behavior after birth encouragement in early childhood and regulation and freedom during adolescence There are differences in affection and distance harshness and repression and acceptance and criticism Some parents insist on obedience others are concerned with individual development This clearly differs from parent to parent but there is just as clearly a connection to culture This book includes chapters on China Colombia Jordan Kenya the Philippines Thailand Korea Vietnam Brazil Native Americans and Australians Argentina Chile Mexico Ecuador Cuba Pakistan Nigeria Morocco and several other countries Beside this the authors address depression academic achievement behavior adolescent identity abusive parenting grandparents as parents fatherhood parental agreement and disagreement emotional availability and stepparents

The Developing Person Through the Life Span (paper) Kathleen Stassen Berger, 2004-03-26 The new edition of The Developing Person Through the Lifespan combines theory and the most up to date research with practical illustration in order to engage readers in the study of development It addresses the fundamental issues from a chronological point of view and covers the entirety of the lifespan not just infancy or adolescence The book's enhanced pedagogy works alongside the author's lively narrative voice to ensure that this edition remains as user friendly if not more so than its predecessors

Parenting Styles in India Margaret Khalakdina, 2017-01-01 Parenting the world over is a task that parents assume automatically on the basis of their experiences starting from their own childhood and or the things learned from the repertoire of knowledge available from the modern scholarship in the field of parent child relations Parenting is not an easy task nor is it a one way process from parent to the child In India the family group is widespread and consists of many types of relatives who contribute to the socialisation process of child upbringing This book explores the influence of these and other socio cultural specific factors and also the new aspects arising from the modernising and globalising world in the parenting styles and how these modify the three major distinctive types of parenting styles viz the Authoritarian the Authoritative and Laissez faire The book puts forward a case for continual redefinition of parenting styles on account of the newly emerging horizons and insights thereof
