The Academy and Literature, 1890 The Art Bulletin, 1942 Includes section Notes and reviews Dialect Death
Charles E. Holloway, 1997-01-01 The Brule Dwellers of Ascension Parish are descendants of Canary Island immigrants who came to Louisiana in the late 1700s A few residents in and around the Ascension Parish area still speak an archaic dialect of Spanish which is at the brink of linguistic extinction Because the Brule dialect is in the final stages of what is commonly known as language death the case of Brule Spanish presents an exciting opportunity to investigate commonly held assumptions regarding the structural changes often associated with vestigial languages Its relative isolation from other dialects of Spanish for over two hundred years serves as a sort of linguistic time capsule which provides information that is relevant to critical outstanding issues in Hispanic dialectology and historical linguistics In addition to examining these issues documenting the specific characteristics of Brule Spanish and comparing Brule Spanish with other modern Spanish dialects this book presents a very accessible introduction to the field of language death Spanish American Literature in the Age of Machines and Other Essays Ángel Rama, 2023-09-01 ngel Rama was among the most prominent Latin American literary and cultural critics of the twentieth century This volume brings together and makes available in English for the first time some of his most influential writings from the 1960s up until his death in 1983 Meticulously curated and translated by Jos Eduardo Gonz lez and Timothy R Robbins Spanish American Literature in the Age of Machines and Other Essays will give readers a new deeper appreciation of how Rama s views on Latin American literary history reflect the dynamic between the region and the rest of the world His rich meditations on the relation between narrative technique social class and group behavior from the point of view of the periphery of capitalism make this volume an important contribution to the study of world literature A Bibliography of Textbooks of Spanish Published in the United States (1795-1939) Doris King Arjona, Jaime Homero Arjona, 1939 Queer Postcolonial Narratives and the Ethics of Witnessing Donna McCormack, 2015-07-30 Queer Postcolonial Narratives and the Ethics of Witnessing is a critically engaged exploration of power and its relation to ethics and bodies By revisiting and revising Judith Butler s and Homi Bhabha s queer and postcolonial theories of literary performance McCormack expands current understandings of the performative workings of power through an embodied multisensory ethics That remembering is an embodied act which necessitates an undoing of one s sense of self captures how colonial and familial histories silenced by hegemonic structures may only emerge through opaque bodily sensations These non institutionalised forms of witnessing serve both to reconfigure theories of performativity by re situating the act of witnessing as integral to the workings of power and to interrogate the current emphasis on speech in trauma studies by analysing the multifarious communal and public ways in which memories emerge In Queer Postcolonial Narratives and the Ethics of Witnessing the body is reinstated as central to both the workings of and the challenges to colonial discourses Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, Library of Congress. Subject
