

When we came back from school, we had some lunch at home. I ate with my brother John and my sister Jane.

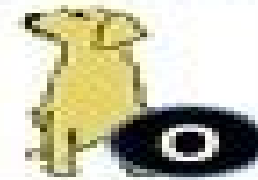

At the dinner table, we talked about school and how we liked our new Art teacher. We were all so tired from all the talking!

We also talked about how we will move to a new house in the fall. We love this house, but the new one is by the beach.

We will be moving with our new dog, Punchie. He hates this house because he never gets to play outside.

The new house is on Macquarie street right on the beach. It has a large pool in the backyard.

There are also two windows on each wall of the house. Those are really important for air and sunlight.

We move next week on Thursday. We are all really excited to move into the new house!

Circle of Fire William F. Axton, 2021-10-21 This study explores the theater actually known and frequented by Dickens in order to show in terms of concrete structural analysis of his novels the nature of the predominantly dramatic or theatrical quality of his genius Author William F Axton finds that the three principal dramatic modes or voices that were characteristically Victorian were burlesquerie grotesquerie and the melodramatic and that the novelist's vision of the world around him was drawn from ways of seeing transformed from those elements in the popular playhouse of his day as revealed in the structure and theme of Sketches by Boz Pickwick Papers Oliver Twist and other novels The last half of the study analyzes representative passages from the novels to illustrate the way in which the principal modes of nineteenth century theatrical style are transmuted into the three important voices of the novelist's prose style The first two voices the burlesque and the grotesque are identified by their exploitation of the stylistic features of farce extravaganza and harlequinade of incongruous likeness and deliberate confusion between realms The melodramatic voice on the other hand seeks to exploit in prose the musically rhythmic and poetic resources of the theater for the purpose of atmosphere moral commentary and structural unity
