Taking Back Philosophy Bryan W. Van Norden, 2017-12-05 Are American colleges and universities failing their students by refusing to teach the philosophical traditions of China India Africa and other non Western cultures This biting and provocative critique of American higher education says yes Even though we live in an increasingly multicultural world most philosophy departments stubbornly insist that only Western philosophy is real philosophy and denigrate everything outside the European canon In Taking Back Philosophy Bryan W Van Norden lambastes academic philosophy for its Eurocentrism insularity and complicity with nationalism and issues a ringing call to make our educational institutions live up to their cosmopolitan ideals In a cheeky agenda setting and controversial style Van Norden an expert in Chinese philosophy proposes an inclusive multicultural approach to philosophical inquiry He showcases several accessible examples of how Western and Asian thinkers can be brought into productive dialogue demonstrating that philosophy only becomes deeper as it becomes increasingly diverse and pluralistic Taking Back Philosophy is at once a manifesto for multicultural education an accessible introduction to Confucian and Buddhist philosophy a critique of the ethnocentrism and anti intellectualism characteristic of much contemporary

American politics a defense of the value of philosophy and a liberal arts education and a call to return to the search for the good life that defined philosophy for Confucius Socrates and the Buddha Building on a popular New York Times opinion piece that suggested any philosophy department that fails to teach non Western philosophy should be renamed a Department of European and American Philosophy this book will challenge any student or scholar of philosophy to reconsider what constitutes the love of wisdom

Judgement and Sense in Modern French Philosophy Henry Somers-Hall, 2022-06-23 This book proposes a radical new reading of the development of twentieth century French philosophy Henry Somers Hall argues that the central unifying aspect of works by philosophers including Sartre Foucault Merleau Ponty Deleuze and Derrida is their attempt to provide an account of cognition that does not reduce thinking to judgement Somers Hall shows that each of these philosophers is in dialogue with the others in a shared project however differently executed to overcome their inheritances from the Kantian and post Kantian traditions His analysis points up the continuing relevance of German idealism and Kant in particular to modern French philosophy with novel readings of many aspects of the philosophies under consideration that show their deep debts to Kantian thought The result is an important account of the emergence and essential coherence of the modern French philosophical tradition

Rethinking the Humanities Ricardo Gil Soeiro, Sofia Tavares, 2011-11-15 In what we consider to be a timely collection of essays the volume Rethinking the Humanities Paths and Challenges tries to reflect upon the present condition of the humanities and their manifold challenges acutely dramatized in an era of increasing contingency and globalization By drawing upon a wide variety of perspectives and areas of research from literary studies to philosophy from cultural criticism to the history of ideas we hope to surpass the now dominant rhetoric of crisis as it features for example in George Steiner's essay Humanities At Twilight not only by devising new horizons for a humanistic literary culture C ndido de Oliveira Martins and envisioning literary studies in a Post literary age

David Damrosch but also by advocating an ethical turn for the humanities Peter Levine and Jos Pedro Serra seen as an education toward autonomy Richard Wolin as well as by reconsidering the very notion of crisis within the humanities Marjorie Perloff and António Sousa Ribeiro By doing so and whilst it does not claim to offer definitive answers the volume nevertheless strives to open up new fields of debate and innovative perspectives The editors
