World History ,2000 Trademark Protection and Freedom of Expression Wolfgang Sakulin,2011-01-01 Trademark law grants right holders an exclusive right to prevent third parties from using a sign This can readily be seen as the antithesis of freedom of expression which arguably includes a right of third parties to non exclusive use of a sign for a variety of purposes ranging from informing consumers to voicing criticism or to artistic expression Drawing on cultural theory and which has shown that society is involved in a constant struggle about shaping the meaning of signs including trademarks and this highly original and provocative book contends that trademark law fails to sufficiently differentiate between commercial purpose and the social political or cultural meanings carried by one and the same sign The author shows that the and functional approach and to justifying trademark rights taken in current jurisprudence and doctrine is deficient in that it does not take sufficient account of the fact that trademark rights can restrict the freedom of expression of third parties Specifically the exercise of rights granted under the European Trademark Regulation and the national trademark rights harmonized by the European Trademark Directive can cause a disproportionate impairment of the freedom of commercial and non commercial expression of third parties as protected by Article 10 of the European Convention on Human Rights ECHR The author and s in depth analysis explores such elements as the following o the economic and ethical rationales of trademark rights o whether trademark rights under European law can be justified by these rationales o how freedom of expression can serve as a limitation to trademark rights o what level of protection such freedom of expression grants to third parties o the role of trademarks of social cultural or political importance in public discourse o chilling effects on public discourse that can be caused by the exercise of trademark rights o the interpretation of provisions regulating the grant and revocation of trademark rights in light of freedom of expression and o the interpretation of the scope of protection and the limitations of trademark rights in light of freedom of expression In effect the analysis serves to expand the focus of legislators courts and trademark registering authorities from the interests of trademark right holders who seemingly are granted ever more protection to the justified interests of third parties The critical analysis of existing trademark law leads the author to clearly identify the areas of trademark law in which the law needs to be reinterpreted and the areas in which legislative action should be taken with recommendations for a number of limitations that should aid legislators in drafting concrete amendments The new insights and imperatives provided by this book are sure to prove useful to both courts interpreting existing provisions of trademark laws and to legislators who are faced with the challenges of drafting new rules or revising existing laws

The Secure and the Dispossessed Nick Buxton,Ben Hayes,2015-11-20 While the world s scientists and many of its inhabitants despair at the impact of climate change corporate and military leaders see nothing but opportunities For them melting ice caps mean newly accessible fossil fuels borders to be secured from climate refugees social conflicts to be managed and more failed states in which to intervene They are securing their assets at the expense of the planet and its inhabitants The Secure and the Dispossessed looks at these deadly approaches with a critical eye It also considers the flip side that the legitimacy of the elite is under unprecedented pressure from resistance by communities to resource grabs to those creating new ecological and socially just models for managing our energy food and water Topics covered include geoengineering militarism refugee protection greenwashing and the agricultural crisis among others Adaptation and resilience to a climate changed world is desperately needed but the form it will take will affect all of our futures

Unwitting Architect Julian Germann,2021-01-05 The global rise of neoliberalism since the 1970s is widely seen as a dynamic originating in the United States and the United Kingdom and only belatedly and partially repeated by Germany From this Anglocentric perspective Germany's emergence at the forefront of neoliberal reforms in the eurozone is perplexing and tends to be attributed to the same forces conventionally associated with the Anglo American pioneers This book challenges this ruling narrative conceptually and empirically It recasts the genesis of neoliberalism as a process driven by a plenitude of actors ideas and interests And it lays bare the pragmatic reasoning and counterintuitive choices of German crisis managers that are obscured by this master story Drawing on extensive original archival research this book argues that German officials did not intentionally set out to promote neoliberal change Instead they were more intent on preserving Germany's export markets and competitiveness in order to stabilize the domestic compact between capital and labor Nevertheless the series of measures German policy elites took to manage the end of golden age capitalism promoted neoliberal transformation in crucial respects it destabilized the Bretton Woods system it undermined socialist and social democratic responses to the crisis in Europe it frustrated an internationally coordinated Keynesian reflation of the world economy and ultimately it helped push the US into the Volcker interest rate shock that inaugurated the attack on welfare and labor under Reagan and Thatcher From this vantage point the book illuminates the very different rationale behind the painful reforms German state managers have demanded of their indebted eurozone partners Capitalist Development and Crisis Theory: Accumulation, Regulation and Spatial Restructuring Mark Gottdiener,Nicos Komninos,1989-06-05 This collection of essays looks at recent developments in the crisis theory of capitalist development and relates such theories directly to the current patterns of economic political technological and cultural changes associated with societal restructuring in industrialized countries Class Questions Joan Acker,2006 Class Questions Feminist Answers examines feminist theories of class and intersectionality and proposes a theory of gendered and racialized class processes as deeply embedded in capitalist practices both historically and today Joan Acker argues that large work organizations are primary locations in which gendered and racialized class inequalities are created As neo liberal market practices reorganize work gendered and racialized class inequalities are both reorganized and increasing nationally and globally This book will appeal to readers interested in a feminist discussion of class as a racialized and gendered process intimately tied to the capitalist economic system Restructuring Japan's Financial Markets Ingo Walter,Takato Hiraki,1993 Dissident Postmodernists Paul

Maltby,2016-11-11 Critics who hold that postmodernist art is essentially adversarial and apolitical have ignored the historical context of the postmodern focus on the problems of language Paul Maltby examines a major current of postmodernist fiction that can be read as a dissident response to developments of late capitalism that have transformed the field of language and communication Choice ,2004 Diamonds and War David De Vries,2010-04-01 The mining of diamonds their trading mechanisms their financial institutions and not least their cultural expressions as luxury items have engaged the work of historians economists social scientists and international relations experts Based on previously unexamined historical documents found in archives in Belgium England Israel the Netherlands and the United States this book is the first in English to tell the story of the formation of one of the world s main strongholds of diamond production and trade in Palestine during the 1930s and 1940s The history of the diamond cutting industry characterized by a long standing Jewish presence is discussed as a social history embedded in the international political economy of its times the genesis of the industry in Palestine is placed on a broad continuum within the geographic and economic dislocations of Dutch Belgian and German diamond cutting centers In providing a micro historical and interdisciplinary perspective the story of the diamond industry in Mandate Palestine proposes a more nuanced picture of the uncritical approach to the strict boundaries of ethnic based occupational communities This book unravels the Middle eastern pattern of state intervention in the empowerment of private capital and recasts this craft culture s inseparability from international politics during a period of war and transformation of empire Goodbye to All That? Dan Stone,2013-01-23 In the decade after 1945 as the Cold War freeze set in a new Europe slowly began to emerge from the ruins of the Second World War based on a broad rejection of the fascist past that had so scarred the continent s recent history In the East this new consensus was enforced by Soviet imposed Communist regimes In the West the process was less coercive amounting more to a consensus of silence On both sides much was deliberately forgotten or obscured The years which followed were in many ways golden years for western Europe Democracy became embedded in Germany and eventually triumphed over dictatorship in Spain Portugal and Greece Britain and France faced up to the necessity of decolonization The European Economic Community was founded and went from strength to strength as the economies of western Europe bounced back from the devastation of the war The countries of the East lagged far behind and seemed caught in a perpetual game of catch up but even there conditions had improved since the end of the war albeit at a much slower rate Above all throughout this period the European world continued to be sustained by the broad anti fascist consensus that had emerged in the years after 1945 However as Dan Stone shows in this new history of the continent since the war this fundamental consensus began to break down in the wake of the oil shocks of the 1970s a process which has rapidly accelerated since the end of the Cold War Globalization deregulation and the erosion of social democratic welfare capitalism in the West and the collapse of the purported Communist alternative in the East have all fatally undermined the post war anti fascist value system that predominated across Europe in the first four decades after the end of the Second World War Ominously this has been accompanied by a rise in right wing populism and a widespread revision of the anti fascist narrative on which this value system was based The danger of this shift is now evident financial and social crisis an increasing inability on the part of European populations to resist historical myth making and the re emergence of fascist ideas The result as Dan Stone warns is socially divisive politically dangerous and a genuine threat to the future of a civilized Europe Nonoffensive Defense ,1990 This work is derived from papers presented at a 1989 UNIDIR symposium in New York and is divided into six parts which define defence strategies examine the European bipolar context study the situation in North East and South East Asia assess conflict in the Middle East and assume a global view Handbook of Economic Development Kuo-Tsai Liou,1998-06-25 Featuring over 1900 references drawings and tables and drawing on disciplines as diverse as political economics public management and urban affairs this versatile text offers comprehensive information on major policy and managerial issues important to local and national economic development Pulling together the work of over 40 researchers the book examines the role of government in economic advances and reform provides a complete up to date survey of the literature on local and national economic development details local and regional economic progress in the US adopts an innovative interdisciplinary approach to the study of economic expansion and more Index to Theses with Abstracts Accepted for Higher Degrees by the Universities of Great Britain and Ireland and the Council for National Academic Awards ,1999 American Studies International ,2002 Daily Report ,1988
