Wagadu Volume 3 Wagadu,2007-09-26 The United Nations has proclaimed the 21st century to be the century of water In this volume Water and Women in Past Present and Future scholars analyze the gendered political economy of water resource allocations and importantly offer recommendations for viable women friendly solutions to address scarcity and distribution among other issues Contributors also explore feminist analyses of the aesthetic dimension of water and the feminine since water is often associated with women shown in cross cultural examples of mythology symbols and legends Intersecting the fields of hydro politics and aesthetics this book should be of interest to policy analysts activists and academics

Death Calls Robert Crossland,2023-02-28 I wade waist deep into the ocean to reach a body floating face down in the local harbor Police first responders and onlookers quietly watch from the shoreline but blood splashes and marks in the sand suggest that something awful has happened here In 1981 while practicing medicine in a small community on the southern coast of British Columbia Dr Robert Crossland is asked if he d be interested in becoming the local coroner Like many Robert has thrilled to the crusading adventures of TV coroner Wojeck and Quincy M E so he takes up the challenge But soon he is to find just how far these TV programs are from the real world of a community coroner During the following twenty three years Robert will investigate and report on more than 600 sudden unexpected deaths in his community and in the surrounding ocean lakes forests and mountains In each case he must establish not only who has died but when where how and why As a member of the community himself he often finds himself personally connected with those who have died Many of the deaths are natural of course but a surprising number are exceptional due to complicated startling unforeseen and sometimes even astonishing circumstances and findings These are the stories of more than a hundred of these remarkable often horrifying events They happen in homes at work sites during recreation or while travelling in boats planes or on roads Some of the deaths prove controversial and Dr Crossland participates in inquests that lead to changes in policies or procedures that reduce the risk of further deaths or sometimes heartbreakingly make no difference at all Sudden death is always disturbing and in vivid pithy engaging anecdotes based on his case files and notes Dr Crossland shares with readers the who when where how and why

The Death Pit Michael F. Wright,2009-08-20 When eighteen year old Gloria Summers dies unexpectedly after undergoing an elective tubal ligation at Detroit's Henry Ford Hospital the mortality review committee can't determine what went wrong But three more unexplained deaths of young women sends the hospital administration reeling Desperate measures ensue and surgical privileges are suspended The administration hires renowned forensic pathologist Dr Cole Buchanan to investigate these suspicious deaths After reviewing the cases and performing additional autopsies Buchanan determines that the deaths were murders but he is stymied by the perpetrators' method Detroit Police Department investigator Detective Joe Braun joins Buchanan in the murder probe this pairing of a forensic specialist with a seasoned murder investigator provides unique insight into the case Several possible suspects come to the forefront as the investigation focuses on the victims' backgrounds Could the suspicious deaths be tied to the women's Catholic religion Or is someone on the hospital staff to blame for the murders Will Buchanan and Braun be able to unravel the mystery before more women die needlessly after surgery As the investigation continues friends become enemies one involved physician commits suicide and an old romance is rekindled within the police department
