Edythe Haber,2018-10-18 Teffi was one of twentieth century Russia s most celebrated authors Born Nadezhda Lokhvitskaya in 1872 she came to be admired by an impressive range of people from Tsar Nicholas II to Lenin and her popularity was such that sweets and perfume were named after her She visited Tolstoy when she was 13 to haggle with him about the ending of War and Peace and Rasputin tried and utterly failed to seduce her After the Bolshevik Revolution of 1917 she was exiled and lived out her days in the lively Russian migr community of Paris where she continued writing and enjoying comparable fame until her death in 1952 Teffi s best stories effortlessly shift from light humour and satire to pathos and even tragedy ever more so when depicting the daunting hardships she and her fellow migr s suffered in exile While best known for her stories and feuilletons she also moved over to other genres from serious poetry to theatrical miniatures and even music and inhabited an extraordinary range of spheres connected to both high and popular culture In the first biography of her in any language Edythe Haber here brings Teffi who has recently been rediscovered in the West to resounding acclaim to life Teffi s life and works afford a unique panoramic view of the cultural world of early twentieth century Russia from the debauchery of the Silver Age to the terror and euphoria of revolution and of interwar Russian emigration But they also offer fresh insights into the seismic events from the 1905 Russian Revolution and World War II to life as a refugee that she experienced first hand and recreated in her vivid penetrating moving and witty writing Voices of Freedom: Contemporary Writing From Ukraine Kateryna Kazimirova,Daryna Anastasieva,2022-11-22 Award winning Ukrainian Writers featured in this riveting and evocative collection of prose poetry essays and photos Voices of Freedom Contemporary Writing From Ukraine is a collection of Ukrainian writing that aims to introduce the English speaking world to some of the most iconic living writers whose work is shaping contemporary Ukraine These are leading intellectuals and moral authorities for the Ukrainian people whose voices and opinions have helped to synchronize the internal compasses of Ukrainian society in the struggle for the freedom of their country Through poetry short stories and essays this collection demonstrates that the desire for freedom and the struggle to achieve it is a theme that cuts across generations of Ukrainian writers and is a central preoccupation of Ukrainian society This collection demonstrates the unique style and artistry of contemporary Ukrainian literature over the past 50 years The curated poetry is an instant reaction to the events taking place today which speaks directly to this current moment and the national psyche The short stories sensitize readers to Ukraine s indivisible history and the present These are accounts about the memory of generations choices and transitions self irony friendship love and the powerful significance of home These stories and novellas represent a single continuous story showing the paths lives and values of the Ukrainian people who have amazed the world with their courage The essays showcase the voices of contemporary Ukrainian intellectuals providing analysis and reflection on what is happening in the present showing historical connections and parallels and shedding light on the origins and triggers of the war on a mental level The collection that follows is the story of Ukraine in the voice of Ukrainians Proceeds from the sale of this collection will support the cultural community and humanitarian efforts in Ukraine This superb anthology of Ukrainian writers delights us with talented writing across all genres and brings home what it means to be a Ukrainian on the frontlines of freedom This rich offering helps every American better understand Ukraine the people the culture and the country Marie Yovanovitch author of an instant New York Times bestseller Lessons From The Edge A Memoir Former U S Ambassador to Ukraine Voices of Freedom Contemporary Writing from Ukraine is a brilliant introduction to a literary tradition long overlooked in America By presenting a mosaic of perspectives experiences and forms this volume showcases the depth diversity and resistance of the culture Putin seeks to erase It s hard to imagine a more politically urgent literary project Anthony Marra the New York Times bestselling author of The Tsar of Love and Techno and A Constellation of Vital Phenomena Defending Ukraine is not just the job of soldiers on the frontline Writers poets publishers and artists also have their job to do and so this book is the right one at the right time The more people abroad know Ukraine and understand it the more they will understand why we need to stand in solidarity with it and with its people Tim Judah British writer reporter and political analyst for The Economist

Memories Teffi, 2016-05-03 WINNER OF THE 2018 READ RUSSIA PRIZE AND THE PUSHKIN HOUSE BEST BOOK IN TRANSLATION IN 2017 Considered Teffi s single greatest work Memories From Moscow to the Black Sea is a deeply personal account of the author s last months in Russia and Ukraine suffused with her acute awareness of the political currents churning around her many of which have now resurfaced In 1918 in the immediate aftermath of the Russian Revolution Teffi whose stories and journalism had made her a celebrity in Moscow was invited to read from her work in Ukraine She accepted the invitation eagerly though she had every intention of returning home As it happened her trip ended four years later in Paris where she would spend the rest of her life in exile None of this was foreseeable when she arrived in German occupied Kiev to discover a hotbed of artistic energy and experimentation When Kiev fell several months later to Ukrainian nationalists Teffi fled south to Odessa then on to the port of Novorossiysk from which she embarked at last for Constantinople Danger and death threaten throughout Memories even as the book displays the brilliant style keen eye comic gift and deep feeling that have made Teffi one of the most beloved of twentieth century Russian writers

Portugal's Global Cinema Mariana Liz, 2017-11-30 Portuguese cinema has become increasingly prominent on the international film festival circuit proving the country s size belies its cultural impact From the prestige of directors Manoel de Oliveira Pedro Costa and Miguel Gomes to box office hit La Cage Doree aspects of Portuguese national cinema are widely visible although the output is comparatively small compared to European players like the UK Germany and France Considering this strange discrepancy prompts the question how can Portuguese cinema be characterised and thought about in a global context Accumulating expertise from an international group of scholars this book investigates the shifting significance of the nation Europe and the globe for the way in which Portuguese film is managed on the international stage Chapters argue that film industry professionals and artisans must navigate complex globalised systems that inform their filmmaking decisions Expectations from multi cultural audiences as well as demands from business investors and the criteria for critical accolades put pressure on Portuguese cinema to negotiate for example how far to retain national identities on screen and how to interact with popular and art film tropes and labels Exploring themes typical of Portuguese visual culture including social exclusion and unemployment issues of realism and authenticity and addressing Portugal s postcolonial status this book is a valuable study of interest to the ever growing number of scholars looking outside the usual canons of European cinema and those researching the ongoing implications of national cinema s global networks

Russia in Flames Laura Engelstein, 2018 Laura Engelstein one of the greatest scholars of Russian history has written a searing and defining account of the Russian Revolution the fall of the old order and the creation of the Soviet state

The Sirens of the Hotel Louvre Serge Gregory, 2025-04-15 Combining history and biography The Sirens of the Hotel Louvre focuses on the intimate relationship and professional collaboration between two creative women in Russia s Silver Age 1880s 1920 The actress Lidia Yavorskaya and the writer Tatiana Shchepkina Kupernik overcame moral and social boundaries to assert themselves as successful artists Their lives intersected with practically all the major theatrical entrepreneurs and artists of the period in Moscow and St Petersburg most notably Anton Chekhov The opening in the 1880s of private theaters in Moscow and St Petersburg resulted in an extraordinary flourishing of the dramatic arts exposing theatergoers to the latest works by both Russian and Western European playwrights In The Sirens of the Hotel Louvre Yavorskaya and Shchepkina Kupernik serve as guides to this remarkable artistic and literary world Serge Gregory shows how their success in fashioning independent careers reflects the emergence of the theater as one of the few professional paths available for educated women in nineteenth century Russia who wished to escape the constraints of traditional family life

Other Worlds Teffi, 2021-04-20 Stories about the occult folk religions superstition and spiritual customs in Russia by one of the most essential twentieth century writers of short fiction and essays Though best known for her comic and satirical sketches of pre Revolutionary Russia Teffi was a writer of great range and human sympathy The stories on otherworldly themes in this collection are some of her finest and most profound displaying the acute psychological sensitivity beneath her characteristic wit and surface brilliance Other Worlds presents stories from across the whole of Teffi s long career from her early days as a literary celebrity in Moscow to her post Revolutionary years as an migr in Paris In the early story A Quiet Backwater a laundress gives a long disquisition on the name days of the flora and fauna and on the Feast of the Holy Ghost a day on which no one dairst disturb the earth The story Wild Evening is about the fear of the unknown The Kind That Walk a penetrating study of antisemitism and of xenophobia and Baba Yaga about the archetypal Russian witch and her longing for wildness and freedom Teffi traces the persistent influence of the ancient Slavic gods in superstitions and customs and the deep connection of the supernatural to everyday life in the provinces In Volya the autobiographical final story the power and pain of Baba Yaga is Teffi's own
