One has to battle a society who deems her a second class citizen the other forges an astonishing entanglement with the ageing Queen Victoria who finds herself enchanted by stories of an India over which she rules but has never seen. Through narrative music and song The Empress blends the true story of Queen Victoria's controversial relationship with her Indian servant and Munshi teacher Abdul Karim with the experiences of Indian ayahs who came to Britain during the 19th century. With private romance being mapped onto world history the action cuts between the ship and different royal residences offering bright contrasts as well as surprising affinities. In doing so the play uncovers remarkable unknown stories of 19th century Britain and charts the growth of Indian nationalism and the romantic proclivities of one of Britain's most surprising monarchs. The Empress which premiered at Stratford upon Avon's RSC in 2013 is published here as a Methuen Drama Student Edition with commentary and notes by Professor Jane Garnett Wadham College University of Oxford UK.

Rewriting the Nation Aleks Sierz, 2011-01-25 This is an essential guide for anyone interested in the best new British stage plays to emerge in the new millennium. For students of theatre studies and theatre goers Rewriting the Nation British Theatre Today is a perfect companion to Britain's burgeoning theatre writing scene. It explores the context from which new plays have emerged and charts the way that playwrights have responded to the key concerns of the decade and helped shape our sense of who we are. In recent years British theatre has seen a renaissance in playwriting accompanied by a proliferation of writing awards and new writing groups. The book provides an in depth exploration of the industry and of the key plays and playwrights. It opens by defining what is meant by new writing and providing a study of the leading theatres such as the Royal Court, the Traverse, the Bush, the Hampstead and the National theatres together with the London fringe and the work of touring companies. In the second part Sierz provides a fascinating survey of the main issues that have characterised new plays in the first decade of the new century such as foreign policy and war, overseas economic boom and bust, divided communities and questions of identity and race. It considers too how playwrights have re-examined domestic issues of family, love, growing up and the fantasies and nightmares of the mind.

Against the backdrop of economic political and social change under New Labour Sierz shows how British theatre responded to these changes and in doing so has been and remains deeply involved in the project of rewriting the nation At the Sharp End: Uncovering the Work of Five Leading Dramatists Peter Billingham, 2007-11-05 What value does theatre have in Britain at the beginning of the twenty first century How has theatre responded to the challenge of remaining relevant in the media saturated world of today These are the questions that underpin this stimulating study of some of the leading dramatists of contemporary British theatre At the Sharp End sets the scene examining how the forces that created a revolution in theatre fifty years ago have been replaced by a new wave of political and social issues It goes on to explore the ways in which five key writers have sought to reflect and wrestle with the changing character of modern Britain The work of David Edgar David Greig Mark Ravenhill Tanika Gupta and Tim Etchells company Forced Entertainment is considered with recent plays examined in detail an interview with each writer and suggestions of other writers and plays for reading and comparison At the Sharp End provides the perfect companion for anyone wanting to understand the changing face of contemporary drama and the writers whose work is making an impact on our stages today A Wolf in Snakeskin Shoes Marcus Gardley, 2015-11-16 This fresh take on Molière's Tartuffe set in a world of fast food tycoons and megachurches is a wicked new comedy that rocks the foundations of trust faith and redemption Given just days to live multi millionaire Archibald Organdy rejects costly experimental treatment and opts to face his end surrounded by his loving family However things could be about to change Arriving in Atlanta the flamboyant Archbishop Tardimus Toof a prophet preacher and part time masseur promises to absolve Archibald's sins and heal his disease But his family suspects there's more to this healer than faith virtue and snakeskin shoes This programme text was published to coincide with the world premiere at the Tricycle Theatre London which opened on 8 October 2015 Finance, Terror, and Science on Stage Kerstin Frank, Caroline Lusin, 2017-08-21 This collection of essays examines the contribution of British plays to key social political and intellectual debates since 2000 It explores some of the most pressing concerns that have dominated the public discourse in Britain in the last decade focusing on their representation in dramatic texts Each essay provides an in depth analysis of one play assessing its particular contribution to the debate in question The book aims to show how contemporary drama has developed unique ways to present the complexities and ambiguities of certain issues with aesthetic as well as emotional appeal Tanika Gupta: Political Plays Tanika Gupta, 2012-06-26 The first collection of plays by acclaimed British dramatist Tanika Gupta includes Sugar Mummies White Boy Sanctuary and Gladiator Games Refusing to be pigeonholed as an Asian playwright Gupta has a fresh perspective on race relations generational divide and sexual politics A National Youth Theatre production White Boy attempts to make sense of school age stabbings and the nature of inner city white identity in an increasingly complex racial landscape In Sugar Mummies the gender politics of the sex trade are inverted as wealthy white women flock to the Caribbean to take advantage of the native toy boys But who is exploiting who On the eve of his release from Feltham Young Offenders
