European Islam Samir Amghar, Amel Boubekeur, Michael Emerson, 2007 This book analyzes the place of the new Muslim minorities in society within the European Union. The authors explore the root causes of rising tensions and conflict between the new immigrant population and native Europeans over issues of Muslim identity, Islamist doctrines, and Islamophobia. They also provide integration models for the various EU countries and discuss the short and long range problems caused by socioeconomic discrimination against Muslims. Contributors include Imane Karich, International Crisis Group, Brussels; Isabelle Rigoni, Paris VIII University; Sara Silvestri, Cambridge University; and City University London. Valeria Amiraux, European University Institute, Florence; Chris Allen, University of Birmingham, UK; Tufyal Choudhury, Durham University, UK; and Bernard Godard, Ministry of Interior, Paris.

British Muslims and Their Discourses Laurens de Rooij, 2023-12-28 This book highlights the changing dynamics of Muslim identity and integration in Britain, focusing on the post 9/11 era. Historically, Muslims faced discrimination based on ethnicity rather than religion. However, contemporary discrimination against Muslims is rooted in different reasons, with events like the Rushdie affair significantly impacting multicultural relations. This study analyzes the evolving multicultural landscape in Britain, exploring the shift from predominantly assimilationist policies to a more mutual process of integration. It delves into the emergence of interfaith dialogue as well as the complexities surrounding the intersection of race, religion, gender, and identity. The research examines two key themes: the discursive positioning of Islam beyond integration and terrorism narratives, and the operationalization of identity by Muslims in various contexts. The study employs empirical methods and cultural studies theories to understand how individual and social practices intersect in this context. By doing so, it contributes to Islamic studies, socio-political studies, and cultural studies, shedding light on the discourses that shape and are shaped by Muslim lives in Britain. The analysis encompasses diverse perspectives from macro-level societal discourses to micro-level individual actions, thus providing a comprehensive exploration of the multifaceted experiences of Muslims in Britain.

Unfolding Islamophobic Racism in American Fiction Humaira Riaz, 2022-12-19 Unfolding Islamophobic Racism in American Fiction presents Islamophobia as a manifestation of racism in literary texts to understand the American perspective of Islam and Muslims. By deconstructing selected literary works of Lorraine Adams, John Updike, and Don DeLillo within Fredrickson's notion of racism as scavenger ideology, Humaira Riaz argues that fiction incorporates racism cloaked in Islamophobia. The author concludes that necessitating interfaith community interaction may help in decreasing religious conflicts. Many of the Western and American assumptions about Islam are generated from ignorance. This work proposes a thorough discursive understanding of Islam as a code of life.

Islam, Securitization, and US Foreign Policy Erdoan A. Shipoli, 2018-05-08 This book argues that Islam has been securitized in US foreign policy, especially during the W. Bush administration, when it was increasingly portrayed as the ultimate other. This securitization was realized through the association of Islam with unique security threats in speeches of foreign policy and national security By analyzing the four recent US presidents discourses on Islam this work sheds light on how they viewed Islam and addresses the following questions How do we talk about Islam its place and relationship within the context of US security How does the language we use to describe Islam influence the way we imagine it How is Islam constructed as a security issue
