Children's Services Betsy Diamant-Cohen,2010-05-31 Diamant Cohen past president of the Maryland Library Association's Children's Services Division gathers 18 examples of outreach partnerships to serve as inspiration for librarians and library administrators Librarians from around the country describe their award winning programs including reading readiness initiatives story times for children with speech and language delays serving children of incarcerated parents and teaching storytelling to youth The ideas are grouped in sections on partnership with community organizations law enforcement academic institutions children's museums cultural institutions and business Publisher Teaching First Grade Min Hong,2001-07 A mentor teacher shares insights strategies and lessons for teaching reading writing and math and laying the foundation for learning success Handbook of Field Experiments Esther Duflo,Abhijit Banerjee,2017-03-21 Handbook of Field Experiments Volume Two explains how to conduct experimental research presents a catalog of research to date and describes which areas remain to be explored The new volume includes sections on field experiments in education in developing countries how to design social protection programs a section on how to combat poverty and updates on data relating to the impact and determinants of health levels in low income countries Separating itself from circumscribed debates of specialists this volume surpasses the many journal articles and narrowly defined books written by practitioners This ongoing series will be of particular interest to scholars working with experimental methods Users will find results from politics education and more Balances methodological insights with analyses of principal findings and suggestions for further research Appeals broadly to social scientists seeking to develop an expertise in field experiments Written in a language that is accessible to graduate students and non specialist economists Children's Services Dr. Betsy Diamant-Cohen,2010-05-31 Betsy Diamant Cohen brings together 18 examples of successful outreach partnerships that children's librarians and administrators can adapt to their own situations Summer No Prep Kindergarten Worksheet Book Kindergarten Summer,2020-06-03 I was going to wait for a little before posting this but decided I would go ahead since I finished it last night This book is a little different than our previous books for a couple of reasons I wanted to make it so that it could be used for preschoolers who are going to start Kindergarten in the Fall but also for have something for Kindergartners that will be transitioning to First Grade in the Fall There is a little something for both age groups This book is designed with children ages 4 to 6 in mind What is included Counting and Number Recognition Fine Motor Tracing Letter sorting Antonyms Shape Practice Finish the Picture Color by Number Upper and Lower Case letter matching Reading Practice and much much more Reflections on Teaching Literacy Willa Wolcott,2011-10-01 The late Margaret J Early was a nationally renowned educator in the field of English education and reading a past president of the National Council of Teachers of English an author and an editor herself and the recipient of many awards The book Reflections on Teaching Literacy Selected Speeches of Margaret J Early edited by Willa Wolcott contains fifteen of her speeches given during the 1970s and 1980s two important decades for the English profession In each address Dr Early probes summarizes and critiques the developments she sees occurring in the teaching of literacy Her speeches are warm chatty and thought provoking providing both an historical overview of the issues involved and the immediacy of her perspective as she tackles possible solutions to these issues many of which continue to be very relevant The speeches are enhanced by an in depth thoughtful Foreword written by Ben Nelms a former editor of The English Journal and a pre eminent figure in English education as he places Dr Early s speeches in the larger context of the changes within the profession itself A two part Afterword written by Jane Townsend and Barbara Pace current faculty members at the University of Florida explores the extent to which Dr Early s speeches are linked to practices in teaching literacy today Leadership on Purpose Rosemary Papa,Rex Fortune,2002-07-03 With a wonderful mix of theory and practice this volume is for professionals and for lay people indeed for anyone interested in the crucial questions related to educational leadership in this country The authors are to be congratulated and the readers will be grateful for their efforts Barry Munitz President and CEO JP Getty Trust Learn proven techniques to increase achievement in ethnically diverse classrooms This compelling guide masterfully demonstrates how high achievement can exist in the midst of high minority enrollment and high poverty By drawing upon the best practices of 13 exemplary schools the book highlights the specific means by which ethnically diverse namely African American and Latino students can attain educational success These Promising Practices are presented in a user friendly well organized format with real examples interwoven throughout An invaluable resource it shares school tested methods that can be replicated readily including 7 strategies for principals to be effective leaders creating a culture of equal learning opportunities for all students 8 tactics for successful curriculum and classroom instruction from assessment to staff development 9 proven ways to make meaningful connections with parents which promote higher student and teacher performance The Family Firm Emily Oster,2022-08-02 The instant New York Times bestseller A Behavioral Scientist Notable Book of 2021 Emily Oster dives into the data on parenting issues cuts through the clutter and gives families the bottom line to help them make better decisions Good Morning America From the bestselling author of Expecting Better and Cribsheet the next step in data driven parenting from economist Emily Oster In The Family Firm Brown professor of economics and mom of two Emily Oster offers a classic business school framework for data driven parents to think more deliberately about the key issues of the elementary years school health extracurricular activities and more Unlike the hourly challenges of infant parenting the big questions in this age come up less frequently But we live with the consequences of our decisions for much longer What s the right kind of school and at what age should a particular kid start How do you encourage a healthy diet Should kids play a sport and how seriously How do you think smartly about encouraging children s independence Along with these bigger questions Oster investigates how to navigate the complexity of day to day family logistics Making these decisions is less about finding the specific answer and more about taking the right approach Parents of this age are often still working in baby mode which is to say under stress and on the fly That is a classic management problem and Oster takes a page from her time as a business school professor at the University of Chicago to show us that thoughtful business process can help smooth out tough family decisions The Family Firm is a smart and winning guide to how to think clearly and with less ambient stress about the key decisions of the elementary school years Parenting is a full time job It s time we start treating it like one Bad Mother Ayelet Waldman,2010-05-04 NATIONAL BESTSELLER A hilarious heartbreaking and edgy Newsweek memoir on modern motherhood In our mothers day there were good mothers indifferent mothers and occasionally great mothers Today we have only Bad Mothers If you work you re neglectful if you stay home you re smothering If you discipline you re buying them a spot on the shrink s couch if you let them run wild they will be into drugs by seventh grade Is it any wonder so many women refer to themselves at one time or another as a bad mother Writing with remarkable candor and dispensing much hilarious and helpful advice along the way Is breast best What should you do when your daughter dresses up as a ho for Halloween Ayelet Waldman says it s time for women to get over it and get on with it in this wry unflinchingly honest and always insightful memoir on motherhood in today s world Transforming Our Image, Building Our Brand Valerie J. Gross,2012-11-08 This book describes a groundbreaking concept that enables public libraries and librarians to become indispensable by following a Three Pillars educational approach and by replacing traditional terms with powerful intuitive value enhanced terminology that everyone understands While there is no question that what librarians and library professionals do is critically important the ways in which these roles and responsibilities are described can mean the difference between being valued as essential to the community or considered optional Something as simple as a choice of words can determine what is valued and consequently what gets funded and what gets canceled Transforming Our Image Building Our Brand The Education Advantage examines how the Three Pillars approach harnesses the power of language to enhance respect generate increased perceived value and garner funding The power stems from positioning all that library professionals do under three easy to remember pillars and replacing typical library terms and phrases with bold value enhanced terminology that commands value language that people outside of the field can immediately understand This book is essential reading for public library staff members at all levels of the organization especially those in leadership roles and its root concepts are applicable for all other library types as well Good Morning, Children Sophia E. Pappas,2009 The first years of teaching are full of any number of unexpected problems and issues that can frustrate even the most prepared early childhood educator Based on her popular blog Sophia Pappas book Good Morning Children provides an up close and personal view of the challenges and successes of a beginning teacher The book describes daily encounters with students family members and administrators reflects on the state of early childhood education in America and celebrates the ways the pre K teacher can help prepare every child to succeed in both school and life In chronicling her successes and failures in her first three years as an early childhood educator Ms Pappas a veteran of the Teach For America education program covers a range of topics that both new and experienced educators face in the early childhood classroom Among other important issues Ms Pappas provides smart and witty insights about the importance of classroom preparation for both the school year and each individual day She provides ideas about how to interact successfully with over and under involved parents and family members while clarifying how critical family interaction and involvement are to a child s success Similarly Ms Pappas describes the activities lessons and teaching techniques that she used to help her students learn and grow Ms Pappas stresses the significance of being able to listen and adjust not only to the needs of the children in your care and to the family members of those children but equally to listen and adjust to your own needs as an educator
