Prather,1965 Crossing Borders in Gender and Culture Konrad Gunesch,Olena Lytovka,Aleksandra Tryniecka,2018-09-30 While gender issues are almost always multidimensional and complex this book discusses them from a cultural angle and with a focus on crossing borders to represent their concepts meaningfully and to illuminate their realities as sharply as possible Its five parts detail specific aspects and issues within that focus namely communication literary representation equality and violence work and politics and cross cultural connections This combination of a wide topical range with specific discussions of gender issues makes the volume s insights worthwhile for a wide range of readers from individuals and groups engaging with current gender challenges to institutional and political decision makers entrusted with improving gender relations on national or international levels up to social economic or educational institutions empowered to implement such solutions in everyday reality Its unity in diversity contributes to gender and cultural studies by offering considerations and conclusions that are specific and generalizable theoretically robust and empirically tested professionally rational and poetically ravishing

The Things I've Seen Lara Marlowe,2013-04-15 Lara Marlowe the Washington correspondent of The Irish Times has witnessed more than her share of history in three decades as a foreign correspondent She has reported with clarity and fearlessness on the main conflicts of our era from the civil war in Lebanon to the break up of Yugoslavia the US invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq and the ongoing Israeli Palestinian conflict She has been outspoken in her criticism of the often cruel and misguided actions of the world s leading powers and invariably seeks out the views of civilians caught up in wars that are not of their making The human cost of conflict and the absurdity of war come through her work time and again In this stunning and moving collection Lara Marlowe has chosen her finest pieces of writing from her years as a foreign correspondent in some of the world s most troubled countries notably Lebanon the Palestinian territories Iraq and Haiti as well as the power centers of Paris and Washington She brings her keen insight to bear on some intractable problems and shares with the reader the terror of living in a war zone There are lighter moments too a wonderful house warming party in Beirut during a lull in artillery bombardments meetings with talented celebrities including Carla Bruni Isabelle Adjani and Marcel Marceau the simple delight of the companionship of cats This is a superb collection from a writer at the height of her powers
