Mueller,2013-11-07 The defeat of George Armstrong Custer and the Seventh Cavalry at the Battle of the Little Bighorn was big news in 1876 Newspaper coverage of the battle initiated hot debates about whether the U S government should change its policy toward American Indians and who was to blame for the army s loss the latter an argument that ignites passion to this day In Shooting Arrows and Slinging Mud James E Mueller draws on exhaustive research of period newspapers to explore press coverage of the famous battle As he analyzes a wide range of accounts some grim some circumspect some even laced with humor Mueller offers a unique take on the dramatic events that so shook the American public Among the many myths surrounding the Little Bighorn is that journalists of that time were incompetent hacks who in response to the stunning news of Custer s defeat called for bloodthirsty revenge against the Indians and portrayed the boy general as a glamorous hero who had suffered a martyr s death Mueller argues otherwise explaining that the journalists of 1876 were not uniformly biased against the Indians and they did a credible job of describing the battle They reported facts as they knew them wrote thoughtful editorials and asked important questions Although not without their biases journalists reporting on the Battle of the Little Bighorn cannot be credited or faulted for creating the legend of Custer s Last Stand Indeed as Mueller reveals after the initial burst of attention these journalists quickly moved on to other stories of their day It would be art and popular culture biographies paintings Wild West shows novels and movies that would forever embed the Last Stand in the American psyche For Soccer-Crazy Girls Only Erin Downing,2025-06-25 Have you ever felt like your soccer team is a second family Then you re definitely soccer crazy and this book is definitely for you From training techniques formations and strategies For Soccer Crazy Girls has it all To be a great soccer player you must be in love with the game Mia Hamm Do you love lacing up your cleats for the first game of the season and do you love it even more when they re caked with mud after the game Are there many nights when you dream about kicking the ball and watching as it soars through the air toward the goal Would your perfect day include hours on the soccer field Do you love to watch people play soaking up everything you can from other soccer crazy players If so this is the book for you Wallace's American Trotting Register ... John

Boy's Heart John Creedon, 2024-10-31 John Creedon's scenes from an Irish childhood paint a colourful and sometimes hilarious picture of a changing Ireland and the growing pains of boyhood. Set in a city centre household bustling with humanity, the cast includes a dozen children and another dozen adults including aunts, an American writer, an African doctor, and a Scottish bookie. The streets outside overflow with brewery horses, beat clubs, dance halls, nuns, priests, a Turkish delight shop, and a pub where a child could sit up on a high stool and smoke his cigarette in peace. Creedon spent the sixties striding the streets of inner city Cork with summers farmed out to friends and family in the countryside. His stories are set in wildly contrasting worlds from urban exotica to spacious meadows, from tales of the open road to his classroom of over fifty boys. These are stories of friendship, fun, family, and folklore. The result is a heart-warming and revealing journey into an Irish boyhood.
