Early Byzantium Stavroula Constantinou, Aspasia Skouroumouni-Stavrinou, 2023-09-29 This volume offers the first comparative interdisciplinary and intercultural examination of the lactating woman biological mother and othermother in antiquity and early Byzantium Adopting methodologies and knowledge deriving from a variety of disciplines the volume's contributors investigate the close interrelationship between a woman and her lactating breasts as well as the social ideological theological and medical meanings and uses of motherhood childbirth and breastfeeding along with their visual and literary representations Breastfeeding and the work of mothering are explored through the study of a great variety of sources mainly works of Greek speaking cultures written and visual anonymous and eponymous which were mostly produced between the first and the seventh century AD Due to their multiple interdisciplinary dimensions ancient and early Byzantine lactating women are approached through three interconnected thematic strands having a twofold focus society and ideology medicine and practice and art and literature By developing the model of the lactating woman the volume offers a new analytical framework for understanding a significant part of the still unwritten cultural history of the period At the same time the volume significantly contributes to the emerging fields of breast and motherhood studies The new and significant knowledge generated in the fields of ancient and Byzantine studies may also prove useful for cultural historians in general and other disciplines such as literary studies art history history of medicine philosophy theology sociology anthropology and gender studies

Shakespeare's Spiral François-Xavier P. Gleyzon, 2010-03-19 Shakespeare's Spiral aims to explore a figure forgotten in the dramatic texts of Shakespeare and in Renaissance painting the snail Taking as its point of departure the emergence of the gastropod object subject in the text of King Lear as well as its iconic interface in Giovanni Bellini's painting Allegory of Falsehood circa 1490 this study sets out to follow the particular path traced by the snail throughout the work From the central scene in which the metaphor of the snail and of its shell is specifically made manifest when Lear discovers in a raging storm the spectacle of Edgar disguised as Poor Tom coming out of his shelter III 3 6 9 to the monster this fiend displaying on the cliffs of Dover horns whelked and waved like the enridged sea IV 6 71 this work is the trace of a narrative of a journey of the gaze during the course of which the cryptic question of the gastropod Why a Snail I 5 26 does not cease to be developed and transformed Incorporating a wide ranging post structuralist critique the study aims to bring to light the particular functions of this revealing detail in both its textual and visual dimension so as to put forward a new and innovatory understanding of the tragedy of King Lear Scientists and other keen observers of the natural world sometimes make or write a statement pertaining to scientific activity that is destined to live on beyond the brief period of time for which it was intended. This book serves as a collection of these statements from great philosophers and thought influencers of science past and present. It allows the reader quickly to find relevant quotations or citations. Organized thematically and indexed alphabetically by author, this work makes readily available an unprecedented collection of approximately 18 000 quotations related to a broad range of scientific topics. Comparative Contract Law Pier Giuseppe Monateri, 2017-04-28. This comprehensive Handbook offers a thoughtful survey of contract theories, issues and cases in order to reassess the field's present vision of contract law. It engages a critical search for the fault lines which cross traditions of thought and globalized landscapes. Comparative Contract Law is built around four main groups of insights including the genealogies of contractual theoretical thinking, the contentious relationship between private governance and normative regulations, the competing styles used to stage contract law and the concurring opinions expressed within the domain of other disciplines such as literature and political theory. The chapters in the book tease out the tensions between a global context and local frameworks as well as the movable thresholds between canonical expressions and heterodox constructions.
