independent reviews of the latest products and services Our expert industry analysis and practical solutions help you make better buying decisions and get more from technology Reconnecting Culture, Technology and Nature Mike Michael,2012-10-12 In this exciting new book Mike Michael uses case studies of mundane technologies such as the walking boot the car and the TV remote control to question some of the fundamental dichotomies through which we make sense of the world Drawing on the insights of Bruno Latour Donna Haraway and Michel Serres the author elaborates an innovative methodology through which new hybrid objects of study are creatively constructed tracing the ways in which the cultural the natural and the technological interweave in the production of order and disorder This book critically engages with and draws connections between a wide range of literature including those concerned with the environment consumption and the body

Understanding Culture Gavin Kendall,Gary Wickham,2001-03-29 Understanding Culture offers an accessible and comprehensive overview of the field of cultural studies whilst also proposing a different way of doing cultural studies It focuses on the ways in which cultural objects and practices serve as both a means of ordering people s lives and as markers of that ordering The book reviews the state of the discipline of cultural studies and suggests a new theoretical and methodological orientation drawing on the work of Foucault scepticism Wittgenstein Harvey Sacks and John Law uses insights from a variety of sources to examine the complex ways in which meanings are manufactured as lives are ordered in particular social settings personal life education health the city and law and presents case studies that illustrate what the new cultural studies looks like covering colonialism everyday life and identity and technology Mobilising Design Justin Spinney,Suzanne Reimer,Philip Pinch,2017-02-24 This book brings together research working at the boundary between design knowledges and mobilities offering a novel collection for both theorists and practitioners Drawing upon detailed case studies it demonstrates the diverse roles of design in shaping mobility at different spaces and scales across cities within different types of buildings and infrastructures and through commuting work and leisure activities A range of international scholars illustrate the designed mobilities of car parks traffic lights street benches pedestrian wayfinding systems and accessible design in the urban environment they examine spaces within hospitals airports and train stations and investigate design practices for bicycles future urban vehicles and MotoGP motorcycle racing Other contributions explore overlooked mobile artefacts such as television and video game remote controls 3D printing and the types of packaging which enable objects themselves to move around This book demonstrates how the tools assumptions and processes of design shape spaces of mobility and also illuminates how shifts in the fluidity and circulation of people practices and materials in turn reconfigure practices of design Mobilising Design develops multi disciplinary understandings of design drawing upon diverse literatures including design history product design architecture and cultural geography By highlighting often invisible artefacts and associated knowledges and controversies the book foregrounds the taken for granted ways in which everyday mobility is designed It will be of interest to scholars in geography sociology economic history architecture design and urban theory
