Incomplete Secession after Unresolved Conflicts Ana Maria Albulescu, 2021-10-20 This book analyses cases of incomplete secession after separatist wars and what this means for relations between central governments and de facto states The work explores the interplay between violence and power by examining the micro dynamics inherent in the process of escalation between separatists and central governments These dynamics affect not only the security interactions between these entities but also the character of political and governance relations that are built in the aftermath of secessionist war The book provides comprehensive analyses of the evolution of post conflict relations between the Republic of Moldova and Transnistria and between Georgia and South Ossetia and Abkhazia Beyond these empirical and conceptual examples the book contributes to a key debate in International Relations that addresses the relationship between democratisation nationalism and violence and its applicability to the study of escalation in the post Soviet space This book will be of much interest to students of secession statehood conflict studies democratisation post Soviet politics and International Relations in general Chapter 2 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The

Routledge Handbook of Mapping and Cartography Alexander Kent, Peter Vujakovic, 2017-10-04 This new Handbook unites cartographic theory and praxis with the principles of cartographic design and their application. It offers a critical appraisal of the current state of the art, science and technology of map making in a convenient and well illustrated guide that will appeal to an international and multi disciplinary audience. No single volume work in the field is comparable in terms of its accessibility, currency and scope. The Routledge Handbook of Mapping and Cartography draws on the wealth of new scholarship and practice in this emerging field from the latest conceptual developments in mapping and advances in map making technology to reflections on the role of maps in society. It brings together 43 engaging chapters on a diverse range of topics including the history of cartography, map use and user issues, cartographic design, remote sensing, volunteered geographic information, VGI and map art. The title's expert contributions are drawn from an international base of influential academics and leading practitioners with a view to informing theoretical development and best practice. This new volume will provide the reader with an exceptionally wide ranging introduction to mapping and cartography and aim to inspire further engagement within this dynamic and exciting field. The Routledge Handbook of Mapping and Cartography offers a unique reference point that will be of great interest and practical use to all map makers and students of geographic information science, geography, cultural studies and a range of related disciplines.

Congressional Record, Researching the Military Helena Carreiras, Celso Castro, Sabina Frederic, 2016-03-02 Researching the Military focuses on the experiences of researchers who study the military around the world. It explores the historical, social, institutional and personal factors that frame research and scrutinize the way knowledge in this area impacts society and policy. More than merely analyzing research experiences, yet necessarily including them, it is also about the experiences of researchers, their position with regard to the object of their studies, the institutional context where they work and the way their research impacts the academic and policy making fields in the respective countries. The common theme to the various chapters is reflexivity, a conscious effort at addressing the conditions of research and the position of the researcher and the research participants in that interface. By collecting diverse experiences of researchers from across the world, this volume aims to enhance reflexivity in the field of military studies and to encourage the exchange of knowledge between the academic field and the military arena. This book will be of much interest to students of military studies, research methods, sociology, social anthropology and security studies in general.
