Specialized Administrative Law of the European Union Herwig C. H. Hofmann, Gerard C. Rowe, Alexander H. Türk, 2018-11-30 This volume deals with the law governing the administrative implementation of European Union public policy Much of this law is specific to individual policy sectors The volume provides a study of such specialized administrative law for more than twenty sectors This cross sectoral approach allows for detailed comparisons of EU administration in diverse policy fields It identifies situations where legal structures and approaches may be unnecessarily duplicated thus indicating where a comprehensive general system could be advantageous for both Union law and policy achievement The comparative nature of the study also draws attention to policy fields which have proven to be testing grounds for approaches adopted subsequently in other areas In addition the work highlights the distinctive highly networked and strongly cooperative character of EU administration as a reflection of and a foundation for the operative nature of the European Union as a whole
