

How to take the assessment test

(And what to do when it's finished)

- ❶ Find out if you are required to take an assessment and which test is the right one for you ❷ Are you...

Brand new to RCC?

or

- Already a student at RCC?
- Coming back to RCC?

Submit your online admissions application (if you haven't already done so.)

Wait at least 2-3 RCC working days after submitting your admissions application

Schedule yourself a test appointment

View the Test Preparation materials

Within 1-2 RCC working days you will receive a letter in your RCC e-mail account. This letter tells you that your placements are on your record and that you are clear to do your next steps.

Take the test

On the day of your test, make sure you are well rested and free of distractions (like hunger and accompanying family or friends.) Wait outside the testing room and we will call everyone in as a group.

❸ Your next steps depend on which of the following applies to you...

Students already in or applying for a special program

1st-time college students

- Current students
- Returning students
- Students coming from another college

Make sure you follow all directions given to you by the program coordinators

Complete online orientation

Complete online 1st semester Student Educational Plan (SEP)

If you want, you can schedule an appointment to visit a counselor

❹ Begin enrolling in classes on or after your registration date/time.

Power, Culture, and Family-School Relations Jen Stacy,2025-01-30 Power Culture and Family School Relations Towards Culturally Sustaining Practices explores the extent to which common practices in school based family outreach advance equity or sustain the status quo in power and cultural relations Using a rich ethnographic account of a school based family literacy program in Nebraska the book unfolds the daily cultural practices of the program so that readers may visualize and contemplate how and if the program serves newcomer and refugee families within the unique context of the New Latine Diaspora The author draws upon critical theory to showcase how neoliberal and deficit ideologies are at play throughout the different aspects of the program the influence these ideologies have on the participants and the tactics used by the caregivers to resist and change the programmatic structures and curriculum to meet their needs As such the book invites educators administrators and scholars into the nebulous and difficult conversation about how schools paradoxical entities that often colonize but prospectively liberate must not just rethink how they work with parents and caregivers but rather dismantle traditional cultural practices that seek to assimilate minoritized families Showcasing the power of ethnography as a tool which can be used to support educators and scholars to understand cultural elements of family outreach programs on a semiotic level and how transforming these semiotic building blocks can lead to equitable relationships it will appeal to scholars and researchers with interests in adult education social foundations of education critical ethnography multilingual Adult Basic Education and family outreach
