Darkness Gene D. Phillips, 2021-03-17 An exhaustively researched survey of Raymond Chandler s thorny relationship with Hollywood during the classic period of film noir Alain Silver film producer and author Raymond Chandler s seven novels including The Big Sleep 1939 and The Long Goodbye 1953 with their pessimism and grim realism had a direct influence on the emergence of film noir Chandler worked to give his crime novels the flavor of his adopted city Los Angeles which was still something of a frontier town rife with corruption and lawlessness In addition to novels Chandler wrote short stories and penned the screenplays for several films including Double Indemnity 1944 and Strangers on a Train 1951 His work with Billy Wilder and Alfred Hitchcock on these projects was fraught with the difficulties of collaboration between established directors and an author who disliked having to edit his writing on demand Creatures of Darkness is the first major biocritical study of Chandler in twenty years Gene Phillips explores Chandler s unpublished script for Lady in the Lake examines the process of adaptation of the novel Strangers on a Train discusses the merits of the unproduced screenplay for Playback and compares Howard Hawks s director s cut of The Big Sleep with the version shown in theaters Through interviews he conducted with Wilder Hitchcock Hawks and Edward Dmytryk over the past several decades Phillips provides deeper insight into Chandler s sometimes difficult personality Chandler s wisecracking private eye Philip Marlowe has spawned a thousand imitations

Creatures of Darkness lucidly explains the author's dramatic impact on both the literary and cinematic worlds demonstrating the immeasurable debt that both detective fiction and the neo noir films of today owe to Chandler's stark vision The Wall Street Journal, 2006 Big Media, Big Money Ronald V. Palumbo, C.W. Sullivan III, 2013-08-03 Reversing a common science fiction cliché Farscape follows the adventures of the human astronaut John Crichton after he is shot through a wormhole into another part of the universe Here Crichton is the only human being going from being a member of the most intelligent species on our planet to being frequently considered mentally deficient by the beings he encounters in his new environment John Crichton befriends a group of beings from various species attempting to escape from imprisonment aboard a living spaceship The series which broke many of the so called rules of science fiction follows Crichton's attempts to survive in worlds that are often hostile to him and his friends Their adventures center on each being's attempt to find a way home The essays in this volume explore themes running throughout the series such as good and evil love and sex and what it means to be a hero as well as the various characters populating the series including the villains and even the ship itself Full of Secrets David Lavery, 1995 A study of Twin Peaks the first foray into television for film director David Lynch It addresses topics which include the series cult status its obsession with doubling and its silencing of women It also analyses the series from feminist deconstructionist and semiotic
