Second Chance Rachel Hanna, 2012-10-12 When Shannon Harris's husband of 18 years dies she is left a widow. But she is glad he is dead after he emotionally abused her for all of those years. Now she worries that she will never be able to open up her heart to any man again. With her daughter leaving for college the 39-year-old widow is forced to move to the Georgia mountains due to her deceased husband's legal antics. There she meets Tanner and her world is turned upside down. Can she trust him? Should she? When her worst nightmare happens she has to make a decision: move forward on blind faith or run away. Filled with suspense, twists, and turns, you will adore this modern love story. The Annual American Catalogue, 1895

Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1988-11 Edwardian Civic Buildings and Their Details Richard A. Fellows, 1999 Richard Fellows' book explores the many influences on Edwardian architects. New methods and techniques, a mixture of tradition and progress, as well as the influence of the arts and crafts movement, are all analysed here in explaining this unique period of design. Edwardian Civic Buildings and Their Details has a strong underlying purpose: an attempt to increase appreciation of the subject and so arrest the decay, decline, and possible demolition of some important buildings. Richard Fellows shows how the civic qualities most admired in Edwardian architecture were achieved in order to encourage those engaged in the process of building design and procurement to recapture the spirit, if not the style, of the years around the turn of the century. Gain an insight into late nineteenth-century and early twentieth-century British architecture. Learn about the major architectural issues from the philosophy of urban planning through to detail design. Case studies of town and country halls and public libraries throughout England illustrate the evolution of the civic philosophy. New York Times Saturday Book Review Supplement, 1936 The Washington Post Index, 2000 Harness Horse, 1991 Dairy Bulletin, 1930
