

The Giver
By Lois Lowry

Study Guide

Chapter 1

1. What is Dystopian literature?
<http://libraryschool.libguides.com/yadystopianlit>
2. Explain the relevance of Bicycles in this world including their use, rules, and meaning. Please return to this question and add to your answer as the bike turns up throughout the entire novel. How does this compare with our society?
3. P. 2- Regarding the pilot, "NEEDLESS TO SAY, HE WILL BE RELEASED." Why is the pilot "released"? What does this mean?
4. Define the following: Connotation and Denotation. Define frightened, eager, and apprehensive in your own words. How are they alike/different?
5. Think about apologies. When do we use them? What is their purpose? This society uses apology by rote. Do we? When and where might this happen? Are they then meaningless or meaningful? Explain.
6. Why do you suppose that these people don't know animals? There could be many reasons. Give several.
7. Why do you suppose that Jonas and his family routinely discuss their feelings every evening? What are your thoughts about this?
8. What do Jonas' parents do for a living? What do you suppose this demonstrates about their personalities? How would you characterize them? Does this tell you anything about their society?

Chapter 2

9. What makes December such a significant month? Explain what happens then.
10. Who is Gabe? How does Gabe show us more about the other characters in the novel?
11. What are comfort objects? What rules pertain to them? What is Lily's comfort object. Getting back to connotation and denotation, what does calling this a "comfort object" show about this society?

Chapter 3

12. Jonas and Gabe share an unusual physical trait. What is it? Why do you suppose that the author selected this in particular? What might this symbolize?
13. Why do you suppose that mirrors are unnecessary in this world? What is the author's purpose in adding this seemingly minor detail.
14. When Lily expresses an interest in becoming a birth mother for her Assignment, her mother scolds her and tells her that there is no honor in it. Yet, birth mothers "receive wonderful food, have very gentle exercise periods, and most of the time they just play games and amuse themselves." If they don't receive these things in veneration, why might society reward them then?

Chapter 4

15. Why are children volunteering at the "House of the Old"?
16. How do you feel that the old are treated in this society? Do they receive more or less respect than our own do? Support your answer with examples.
17. How does the "release" of Roberto compare with the release of the pilot, for example?

Secondary Solutions The Giver Answers:

The Secondary School Principal in Action Leonard E. Kraft, 1971 Real-World Learning Framework for Secondary Schools Marge Maxwell, Rebecca Stobaugh, 2015-08-28 Foster authentic learning in classrooms Students desire to find meaning in what they learn and to exert creativity in their schoolwork Using the Create Framework educators can help students find greater fulfillment in learning while also meeting the guidelines of curriculum standards Explore the framework's main components and understand how to use the framework for classroom school and district pursuits Volume 18, Tome II: Kierkegaard Secondary Literature Jon Stewart, 2021-12-16 In recent years interest in the thought of Kierkegaard has grown dramatically and with it the body of secondary literature has expanded so quickly that it has become impossible for even the most conscientious scholar to keep pace The problem of the explosion of secondary literature is made more acute by the fact that much of what is written about Kierkegaard appears in languages that most Kierkegaard scholars do not know Kierkegaard has become a global phenomenon and new research traditions have emerged in different languages countries and regions The present volume is dedicated to trying to help to resolve these two problems in Kierkegaard studies Its purpose is first to provide book reviews of some of the leading monographic studies in the Kierkegaard secondary literature so as to assist the community of scholars to become familiar with the works that they have not read for themselves The aim is thus to offer students and scholars of Kierkegaard a comprehensive survey of works that have played a more or less significant role in the research Second the present volume also tries to make accessible many works in the Kierkegaard secondary literature that are written in different languages and thus to give a glimpse into various and lesser known research traditions The six tomes of the present volume present reviews of works written in Catalan Chinese Czech Danish Dutch English Finnish French Galician German Greek Hebrew Hungarian Italian Japanese Norwegian Polish Portuguese Romanian Russian Slovak Spanish and Swedish Managing the Secondary School Joan Dean, 1985 This new edition of Managing the Secondary School updates the consideration of the tasks and skills of the headteacher which was a feature of the first edition The book deals with all aspects of the headteachers role including marketing the school and managing the budget It also deals in some detail with the problems of managing change and with the role of governors and parents in today's schools Throughout the book Joan Dean considers the implications of the Education Reform Act and the National Curriculum

The Confessions Saint Augustine (of Hippo),1990 The Trinity Saint Augustine (of Hippo),1990 A splendid translation made from a trustworthy Latin text of what is for some of us the foundation work of Christian theology He has fitted out his translation clearly the best of the four that have been made into English with notes that go well beyond the perfunctory and a 38 page introduction that is a delight to read Journal of Religion and Health Barry Ulanov Resources in Education ,1998-05 The Realm of a Rain Queen E. Jensen Krige,J. D. Krige,2018-09-03 Originally published in 1943 this book discusses the life and culture of the Lovedu a Bantu tribe in South Africa As well as discussing the Rain Queen much of the book is devoted to the royal institutions the network of links woven by kinship marriage and marriage cattle the legal procedure of compromise and appeasement and various aspects of magic witchcraft and religion Considered as a whole the culture emerges as a structure supporting and in turns supported by the Rain Queen Medical Review ,1900 Gas Age ,1900 Includes summaries of proceedings and addresses of annual meetings of various gas associations L C set includes an index to these proceedings 1884 1902 issued as a supplement to Progressive age Feb 15 1910 Chicago Schools Journal ,1927 Scientific American ,1914 An Introduction to the Politics of Tropical Africa Richard Hodder-Williams,2010-11-26 This wide ranging and informative introduction to politics in tropical Africa first published in 1984 is essential reading to students businessmen government officials and economic advisers alike Situating the contemporary scene firmly in its historical context which stresses both pre colonial and colonial heritages he emphasizes how politicians are constrained by the past the physical environment and the world s economy yet still retain freedom of choice on a wide range of issues The book is thematically organised and provides both an overview of the general similarities of the continent and also enough detail to flesh out the realities of tribalism and corruption as well as illustrating the variations that inevitably occur in a continent of sovereign states English Mechanic and Mirror of Science ,1885 English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art ,1910 Journal of Education ,1884 Setting up Community Health and Development Programmes in Low and Middle Income Settings Ted Lankester,Nathan J. Grills,2019-03-07 A majority of people living in rural areas and urban slums worldwide have minimal access to healthcare Without information about what to give a child with stomach flu how to relieve the pain of a broken bone and how to work against increased substance abuse in a village the whole community suffers Children adolescents adults and older people are all affected by the lack of what many of us view as basic healthcare such as vaccination pain killers and contraceptives To improve living conditions and life expectancy the people in urban slums and rural areas need access to a trained health care worker and a functioning clinic Setting up Community Health and Development Programmes in Low and Middle Income Settings illustrates how to start develop and maintain a health care programme in poor areas across the world The focus is on the community and how people can work together to improve health through sanitation storage of food fresh water and more Currently there is a lack of 17 million trained health care workers worldwide Bridging the gap between medical professionals and people in low income areas the aim of this book is for a member of the community to receive training and become the health care worker in their village They will then in turn spread information and set up groups working to improve health The book also explains in detail how communities can work alongside experts to ensure that practices and processes work effectively to bring the greatest impact Copiously illustrated and written in easy to read English this practical guide is designed to be extremely user friendly Ideal for academics students programme managers and health care practitioners in low and middle income settings worldwide it is an evidence based source full of examples from the field Setting up Community Health and Development Programmes in Low and Middle Income Settings shows how a community can both identify and solve its own problems and in that way own its future This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC 4 0 International licence
