autobiographical novel relates the travels and travails of Albert Nostran An 18 year old American born and raised in the country outside 25 miles east of Paris his quest is to find America a woman and himself Lugging his guitar Don Pedro fleeing his cantankerous father well meaning mother and a brother he wants to turn into a fellow musician he braves disease fatigue cold and angst to land in Big Sky University in Missoula Montana to sink his teeth into the frozen American west Many aspects of US Montana life intrigue the protagonist yet Nostran retains a European sense of history and critical mind arguably a Tocqueville of the late 1970s he never misses an opportunity to comment on the local societal oddities and contradictions Perhaps you were more French than you thought Damian his childhood friend tells the homesick hero in chapter one Before they launch off in an exploration of a bleak wintery nocturnal Paris during which Nostran loses his innocence in the arms of a prostitute After whom our hero believes he has contracted something nasty yet another little inconvenience he must face when flying back to Chicago via London And matters do not improve in the endless yet at times magical bus ride between Salt Lake City and Butte and he comes close to freezing trying to hitch hike along the wide open spaces between Butte and Missoula A few pills later the sex quest resumes Undaunted Nostran in his diaspora flirts with one woman and then another with precious little of the supposed Gallic related savoir faire Life at the university does harbor the excitement of weekends and dormitory life with its freshman friendships and na vet as well the tedium and occasional enlightenment of classes And extra curricular activities such as teaching dorm mates how to strum a guitar Against this background vivid characters are etched Threats the homophobic narcissistic football player Rotch another jock who after having learned guitar from Albert begins to ridicule his former mentor Up in Polson Mt we encounter Montcarlson and his wife the curious couple who originally recommended the university In Dubois Wyoming we meet Lancelot Wolf owner of the Salamander Ranch and Jim the bisexual bartender who reveals unexpected secrets about women the eager Nostran very quickly applies to Tweets the stocky femme fatale in the blue car he more than befriends on yet another glacial return to Missoula Bags repacked the last U S trek takes him and two others back east to Chicago and New York one American city whose intensity captivates him If the USA experience at times mystified the adolescent returning to France in the summer proves anticlimactic At first What the old country appears to lack in razzle dazzle it gradually makes up in terms of simplicity and deep rooted friendships Besides after a stint with translations Nostran cannot sit still for long Driving from his boyhood home in Seine et Marne a little east of Paris first up to Amsterdam with three rambunctious of old high school mates then down to the Spanish border via the Loire valley with the equally lust ridden Lecoq Hasien Nostran once again rediscovers the virtues of Europe and home At the very last minute when all sexual hope has been abandoned a young lady on the Saint Jean de Luz boardwalk asks him for a light She is not a prostitute and agrees to meet him the next day

Cool Conduct Helmut Lethen, 2002-03-27 Lethen brilliantly interprets New Objectivity as a tactical response to the need for a code of conduct in an age of anxiety about values and normative judgments Moving effortlessly between analysis of philosophical texts and literary works he charts an increasingly popular field of cultural studies how cultural discourses shape behavior One of the most original and daring contributions to Weimar scholarship and to the study of modernity in general in a decade Anton Kaes University of California Berkeley Lethen is probably the most original and outstanding scholar writing in German today about Weimar literature and culture He traces the figure of the cold persona as part of a broader discourse of anthropological ethical and aesthetic dimensions The book is written in a personal voice witty lucid and unpretentious Miriam Hansen University of Chicago

The Rolling Stone Jazz & Blues Album Guide John Swenson, 1999 The most comprehensive guide to jazz and blues recordings in print including reviews of more than ten thousand albums An essential book for any music fan's library

The Tragic Histories of Mary Queen of Scots, 1560-1690 John D. Staines, 2016-12-05 Author John Staines here argues that sixteenth and seventeenth century writers in England Scotland and France wrote tragedies of the Queen of Scots royal heroine or tyrant martyr or whore in order to move their audiences towards political action by shaping and directing the passions generated by the spectacle of her fall In following the retellings of her history from her lifetime through the revolutions and political experiments of the seventeenth century this study identifies two basic literary traditions of her tragedy one conservative sentimental and royalist the other radical skeptical and republican Staines provides new readings of Spenser and Milton as well as of early modern dramatists to compile a comprehensive study of the writings about this important historical and literary figure He charts developments in public rhetoric and political writing from the Elizabethan period through the Restoration using the emotional representations of the life of this tragic woman and queen to explore early modern experiments in addressing and moving a public audience By exploring the writing and rewriting of the tragic histories of the Queen of Scots this book reveals the importance of literature as a force in the redefinition of British political life between 1560 and 1690

The Possibility of Love Kathleen O'Dwyer, 2009 The Possibility of Love is an exploration of a concept close to the human heart Grounded in the ordinary everyday experiences of human living the book provides an exploration of the diverse obstacles to the experience of love the consequences of love TM's absence and the unquenchable desire for love which propels influences and ultimately motivates much of human behaviour The Possibility of Love poses the question is love actually possible between human beings or is it an ideal a fantasy an illusion or a comforting aspiration which enables a palliative denial and distortion of the reality of human being This expansive question is approached through an interdisciplinary analysis The author addresses the question of love TM's possibility as it is explored in a selection of literature from the disciplines of philosophy psychoanalysis and poetry The interdisciplinary nature of the study is based on the assertion of an interconnection between the three disciplines and that this interconnection enables a unique and insightful exploration of the question of love TM's possibility Thus the question is explored from diverse view points and also from different time frames convergences and divergences are noted and discussed and conclusions are drawn from the ensuing findings The book is essentially a philosophical analysis of an emotion that significantly impacts on human
