

The Innovative Leadership Development Continuum

Stage	Work Focus	Decision Time Horizon	Complexity
Lead Self	Mainly task	1 day – 2 years	Few tasks/projects focus on task level
Emerging Leader	Mainly task and management – small leadership (focus on process)	3 months – 5 years	Begin focus on process – manage small to medium-sized project and small to medium-sized team. Set vision for department within organization, or vision for small organization. Begin to show concern about impact on the larger stakeholder group and community
Leader	Balance lead and management – some task (focus on process and system)	3 – 10 years	Manage multiple complex projects, manage medium to large team. Set vision for division or small to medium-sized company. Growing concern with the larger community and industry (beyond company)
Executive	Mainly lead – for some still heavy management – little task (focus on system and systems within larger systems)	5 – 20 years	Manage/lead complex enterprise – often global (company, nonprofit, or public service). Integrated focus – set vision, drive culture, and systems. Also interact and influence larger system—such as industry and government—that interact with the enterprise

Gower Handbook of

Leadership and Management Development Richard Thorpe, 2016-04-22 On few occasions in the history of modern management have leadership skills been in such sharp focus as they are now The ability to direct often very large and diverse organizations to make sense of the complex and turbulent markets and environments in which you operate and to adapt and learn seems at an all time premium The premise behind the fifth edition of this influential Handbook is that leadership management and organizational development are all parts of the same process enhancing the capacity of organizations whatever their size and the people within them to achieve their purpose To this end the editors have brought together a who's who of current writers on leadership and development and created the definitive single volume guide to the subject The perspectives that the text provides to leadership learning and development embrace the formal and the informal cultures and case examples from organizations of all kinds and offers readers a rigorous readable and where appropriate ground breaking book In the 14 years since the fourth edition of this classic book very much has changed But the need for this Handbook is as strong as ever and the Fifth Edition of Gower Handbook of Leadership and Management Development is set to become a definitive read for senior managers and those who develop them and an essential reader for the management students aspiring to become the next generation of leaders The Appraiser's Handbook Nick Lyons, Susanne Caesar, Abayomi

McEwen, 2018-04-19 This book contains a foreword by Maurice Conlon Associate Director Appraisal and Revalidation Lead NHS Clinical Governance Support Team This is an invaluable detailed guide offering practical resources for medical professionals in the challenging role of appraiser It assists with confidence professionalism and competency and contains a comprehensive up to date summary of the state of play for appraising doctors It also includes sample forms contracts for guidance and links to web resources The Appraiser's Handbook provides vital information for all those involved in continuing professional development in primary and secondary care Appraisal leads and managers in primary and secondary care trusts will find it of great interest as will clinical tutors GP tutors and deanery educational teams This book aims to support appraisers in developing their skills in order to ensure that the doctor whom they appraise gains the maximum possible benefit from the time spent in and preparing for the appraisal The appraiser will find appraisees who enthusiastically embrace appraisal and those who doubt its use and place in their professional development Different approaches may be needed to support and understand different individuals Nick Lyons Susanne Caesar and Abayomi McEwen This book written by a trio steeped in appraisal is a valuable resource for appraisers It will help doctors learning to be appraisers and experienced appraisers It will also help those organising appraisal to remind them of the aims of the process Teachers of appraisal will be able to use it to supplement and support their curricula I believe revalidation when it arrives will be the single biggest step towards improvement taken by the profession since the introduction of the medical register I also believe this depends upon the inclusion of appraisal within the revalidation package Putting high quality developmental appraisal in the water for the medical profession will bring about a whole profession shift in terms of lifelong professional development This book will support that aim Maurice Conlon in the Foreword
