Reaction Paper

Abortion has been one of the debatable social issues in the world and has been a controversial term since the ancient times. Literally, the term is used to refer to the act of bringing a pregnancy to an end, by either extracting an embryo or the fetus before maturity. Ethical, State and religious views on abortion vary from place to place. In several regions, the act is allowed in certain situations like rape, biological problems, in case the woman's life is endangered, or incest. However, abortion has remained a debatable issue morally, ethically, and legally. The Philippines' abortion law is among the strictest in the world and remains illegal under all circumstances and is highly stigmatized. The Penal Code considers abortion to be a criminal offense punishable by up to six years in prison for doctors and midwives who perform abortions and by 2–6 years in prison for women who undergo the procedure, regardless of the reason.

As we all know, abortion is an ethical issue primarily because it involves ending the life of a fetus. All of my interviewees are against abortion primarily because it is against the teachings of God. They all point out that as an obedient citizen of the country, we must abide by the laws enforced by the government and as a true Christian we must follow the laws of our Lord God. According to them, the law may prohibit or require. They said that when it is said forbidden, do not do it because if you do it, you will fall into sin. And when it is said to require, it must be done because if you do not do it, it will also fall into sin. All of them said that one of the forbidden laws of man and even the law of God is that it is forbidden to kill another human being. That homicide is a very grievous sin under human law and especially under the law of the Lord God. That murder is not just by fighting or by war. Humans can also kill someone unopposed through so-called abortion. They strongly believe that the unborn child already has life and has the right to live so it should not be killed because we, humans don't have the right to. God gave us life so no one aside from God can take our life. God commands us not to kill, so as a true Christian and as a member of society, killing is prohibited in human law and especially in God's law.

I agree with their point of view. That we all have the right to live. Rights to see this beautiful world. That no one can take our life easily aside for our Lord God who gave us life.
