The World of the Crusades Andrew Holt, 2019-06-05 Unlike traditional references that recount political and military history this encyclopedia includes entries on a wide range of aspects related to daily life during the medieval crusades The medieval crusades were fundamental in shaping world history and provide background for the conflict that exists between the West and the Muslim world today This two volume set presents fundamental information about the medieval crusades as a movement and its ideological impact on both the crusaders and the peoples of the East It takes a broad look at numerous topics related to crusading with the goal of helping readers to better understand what inspired the crusaders the hardships associated with crusading and how crusading has influenced the development of cultures both in the East and the West The first of the two thematically arranged volumes considers topics such as the arts economics and work food and drink family and gender and fashion and appearance The second volume considers topics such as housing and community politics and warfare recreation and social customs religion and beliefs and science and technology Within each topical section are alphabetically arranged reference entries complete with cross references and suggestions for further reading Selections from primary source documents each accompanied by an introductory headnote give readers first hand accounts of the crusades

Agency in Transnational Memory Politics Jenny Wüstenberg, Aline Sierp, 2020-07-01 The dynamics of transnational memory play a central role in modern politics from postsocialist efforts at transitional justice to the global legacies of colonialism Yet the relatively young subfield of transnational memory studies remains underdeveloped and fractured across numerous disciplines even as nascent boundary crossing theories on topics such as multi vocal traveling or entangled remembrance suggest new ways of negotiating difficult political questions This volume brings together theoretical and practical considerations to provide transnational memory scholars with an interdisciplinary investigation into agency the who and the how of cross border commemoration that motivates activists and fascinates observers

Law and the Islamization of Morocco under the Almoravids Camilo Gómez-Rivas, 2014-11-20 Law and the Islamization of Morocco under the Almoravids The Fatwas of Ibn Rushd al Jadd to the Far Maghrib investigates the development of legal institutions in the Far Maghrib during its unification with al Andalus under the Almoravids 434 530 1042 1147 A major contribution to our understanding of the twelfth century Maghrib and the foundational role played by the Almoravids it posits that political unification occurred alongside urban transformation and argues that legal institutions developed in response to the social needs of the growing urban spaces as well as to the administrative needs of the state Such social needs included the regulation of market exchange the settlement of commercial disputes and the privatization and individualization of property
