Through Sports Christine Brennan,2022-06-17 From the best known and most widely read woman sports columnist in the United States comes a remarkable memoir of a father and a daughter the story of a girl who would turn her love for sports into a trailblazing career Christine Brennan grew up in Toledo Ohio spending her summers playing with the boys on her block memorizing baseball statistics accompanying her dad to countless baseball and football games and falling in love with everything about sports While other girls were playing with Barbie dolls Chris was collecting baseball cards and listening to the radio for the play by play accounts of her favorite teams The eldest of four children Chris was her father s daughter from the beginning For a girl growing up in the 1960s and 70s in the days before Title IX changed the playing fields of America there were few opportunities to play organized sports But Jim Brennan encouraged his daughter to believe she could play anything she wanted to and when she couldn t be on the field he was by her side in the stands she always thought the seat next to her father was the best seat in the house usually cheering for the underdog and making sure Chris knew there was a place for her in the world of sports In her warm and inspiring memoir the first of its kind by a female sports journalist Brennan takes readers from her neighborhood ball fields to the press boxes and locker rooms of stadiums around the world Guided by her father s unfailing sense of loyalty honor and fairness at the age of twenty two she became the first female sportswriter for The Miami Herald and in 1985 was the first woman to cover the Washington Redskins as a staff writer for The Washington Post Over the past quarter century Brennan has reported on many of the biggest stories in sports and led the coverage of both the 1994 Tonya Harding Nancy Kerrigan saga and the pairs figure skating scandal at the 2002 Salt Lake Olympics Her USA Today column on Augusta National Golf Club home of the Masters triggered a nationwide debate about the club s lack of female members Told in the spirited friendly voice that readers of her column have come to love Best Seat in the House is the heartwarming chronicle of a girl who came of age as women s sports were coming of age encouraged every step of the way by her beloved father College Football Stadiums Alva W. Stewart,2023-05-19 This is a complete
