National Assembly,1981 Historical Dictionary of Lesotho John Aerni-Flessner,Charles Fogelman,Nthabiseng Mokoena-Mokhali,2023-11-30 Lesotho s history has long been defined by its enclave status within South Africa but it is a hard fought and hard won status that helps unite Basotho through the shared history of struggle against colonial rule in the region Since the end of apartheid in 1994 Lesotho's status as a separate entity has been called into question though the fierce national pride built through centuries of resistance to outside rule has mitigated against any serious discussions of incorporating Lesotho into South Africa Still the political instability and lack of a flourishing domestic economy have made life difficult for the majority of Basotho and could call into question the viability and legitimacy of the state in the eyes of its citizens if it cannot enact significant reforms in the coming decades Historical Dictionary of Lesotho Third Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Lesotho

Education, Race, and Social Change in South Africa John A. Marcum, United States-South Africa Leader Exchange Program. Study Team, 1982-01-01 Nelson Mandela Peter Limb, 2008-02-28 Everyone should know the life story of Nelson Mandela one of the greatest leaders of all time the first black president of South Africa the most famous African and a major world statesman His inspiring life receives a fresh retelling in this new biography written especially for students and general readers This volume is an enjoyable authoritative and balanced way to not only understand a great man but also to understand a critical time in world history and race relations Mandela's quest for racial justice for black South Africans as a leader of the African National Congress led to twenty seven years of imprisonment South African Apartheid consumed the attention of the world coming to a head in the 1980s With intense international pressure on the Apartheid government Mandela was finally freed in 1990 Through the landmark presidency of South Africa and post Nobel Peace Prize years up until today he has continued as a peacemaker and agent for change Chapter 1 covers his birth into a strong Xhosa family and clan with cultural historical and geographical context and the next chapter follows his elite education path taking into consideration the forces and people who helped shape the future leader Chapter 3 discusses his law practice African National Congress work and his first wife Chapters 4-6 continue with his growing political involvement and family Chapter 7 and 8 deal with the long imprisonment and then freedom The final chapters discuss his presidency and Nobel Peace Prize and life today A timeline photo essay and selected bibliography complement the narrative

The Fires Beneath Seán Morrow, 2016-06-01 The life of Monica Wilson is a story of groundbreaking scholarship passionate creativity and personal tragedy during South Africa's bitter and divided twentieth century As a young anthropologist in the 1930s Monica immersed herself in the lives work and beliefs of African communities in southern and East Africa while carefully observing the effects of historical change At the core of her existence was her intellectual collaboration and intense personal relationship with her husband the brilliant but clinically depressive Godfrey Wilson who took his own life in 1944 After Godfrey's death Monica raised their two children and built a career as a leading academic at Fort Hare Rhodes University College and the University of Cape Town In a political environment where black academics were under constant threat and ideas were censored she outspokenly advocated racial equality and freedom of speech her publications emphasising a common South African identity and implicitly challenging apartheid separate development This fascinating biography moves between the Eastern Cape Cambridge Tanganyika Nyasaland Northern Rhodesia and Cape Town It explores the relationship between anthropology and history and the tensions between liberalism Christianity Marxism and apartheid ideology Drawing on the letters and diaries left by Monica and Godfrey Wilson this is a powerful story about politics race war faith love and loss

When I Said I Do Colleen Mapatwana ,2020-12-20 This is a story of endurance or less time to breath for ease for a young Christian couple who are leaders of a local church as Pastor and Lady Pastor of the Church The young couple Pastor Simphiwe Gambu and Nontle Madikizela met at church and made vows to each other the Antagonist Blessing Mthimkhulu a daughter of the Apostle who has been raised with Christian values and principles has vowed to become the Pastor s wife and gives the couple no time to rest Challenges emanates from inside the church where there are satanists given authority by Lucifer to fight and destroy their marriage because of the dangerous prayers of the Pastor and his wife while other women at church wants the Pastor to marry their daughters Children from outside marriage also bring a strain to the already sinking marriage Forces of darkness intensify the attacks as the warfare increases The couple loses almost everything they had Pastor Gambu is given an option to come out of their misery and poverty an option of joining a Christian cult by prophesying through evil spirits and divination to increase his church members and to make money leading people of God astray to satisfy his ambitions will he take that option Will their marriage survive these challenges

Mamelodi Politics Titus Mashaba, This book explores the rich historical background of Mamelodi a township located east of Pretoria It begins with the origins of the township in 1945 when it was still known as Vlakfontein During the apartheid era starting in the 1950s through the 1960s many of Mamelodi s residents were forcibly removed from various white designated areas and relocated as part of the Group Areas Act of 1950 The book examines the struggles of these African populations as they were segregated in all aspects of life from social and political spheres to their economic opportunities It also delves into the impact of key events including the 1976 educational strike and continues to analyze the township s transformation through the democratic era offering a comprehensive view of its historical and cultural evolution
