Lefty's Journey Ralph DeFalco, 2011-11-22 When Ralph arrived at the row house in the South Bronx he had to step back as his family made their way up the steps. They started to creak as they carried their luggage and all that went through his mind was that they would collapse if he also climbed those steps. Where he came from all the steps were made of either marble or granite. How in the world would these wooden stairs hold up? Ralph had been surrounded by the unpolluted blue Mediterranean that reflected the ever present blue sky. If the temperature became too hot he cooled off in that blue water to his heart's content. Now in the bowels of the South Bronx the only thing that turned blue was his demeanor. His only relief from the stifling summer heat along with some of the boys from the neighborhood would be to illegally open a fire hydrant when the police were not around.

American Constitutional Law Donald P. Kommers, John E. Finn, Gary J. Jacobsohn, 2009-07-16 American Constitutional Law Essays Cases and Comparative Notes is a unique casebook that encourages citizens and students of the Constitution to think critically about the fundamental principles and policies of the American constitutional order. In addition to its distinguished authorship the book has two prominent features that set it apart from other books in the field: an emphasis on the social political and moral theory that provides meaning to constitutional law and interpretation and a comparative perspective that situates the American experience within a world context that serves as an invaluable prism through which to illuminate the special features of our own constitutional order. While the focus of the book is entirely on American constitutional law the book asks students to consider what if anything is unique in American constitutional life and what we share with other constitutional democracies. Each chapter is preceded by an introductory essay that highlights these major themes and also situates the cases in their proper historical and political contexts. This new edition offers updated and expanded treatment of a number of important and timely topics including gerrymandering and campaign finance the death penalty privacy affirmative action and school segregation. The new edition offers _ Updated and expanded treatment of key cases on gerrymandering and campaign finance _ Expanded discussion of the Court's work federalism and the commerce clause _ Discussions of the Court's new cases on the death penalty including a discussion of the controversy within the Court.
