Understanding Narrative Inquiry The Crafting and Analysis of Stories as Research is a comprehensive thought provoking introduction to narrative inquiry in the social and human sciences that guides readers through the entire narrative inquiry process from locating narrative inquiry in the interdisciplinary context through the philosophical and theoretical underpinnings to narrative research design data collection excavating stories data analysis and interpretation and theorizing narrative meaning Six extracts from exemplary studies together with questions for discussion are provided to show how to put theory into practice Rich in stories from author Jeong Hee Kim's own research endeavors and incorporating chapter opening vignettes that illustrate a graduate student's research dilemma the book not only accompanies readers through the complex process of narrative inquiry with ample examples but also helps raise their consciousness about what it means to be a qualitative researcher and a narrative inquirer in particular

Sourcebook of Family Theories and Methods Pauline Boss, William J. Doherty, Ralph LaRossa, Walter R. Schumm, Suzanne K. Steinmetz, 2008-11-19

We call this book on theoretical orientations and methodological strategies in family studies a sourcebook because it details the social and personal roots i.e. sources from which these orientations and strategies flow Thus an appropriate way to preface this book is to talk first of its roots its beginnings In the mid 1980s there emerged in some quarters the sense that it was time for family studies to take stock of itself A goal was thus set to write a book that like Janus would face both backward and forward a book that would give readers both a perspective on the past and a map for the future There were precedents for such a project The Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Harold Christensen and published in 1964 the two Contemporary Theories about the Family volumes edited by Wesley Burr Reuben Hill F. Ivan Nye and Ira Reiss published in 1979 and the Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Marvin Sussman and Suzanne Steinmetz then in production

No Matter What Catherine Keller, 2024-12-03

A collection of essays that outline the recent work on ecology political theology religion and philosophy by one of the leading theologians of our age As we face relentless ecological destruction spiraling around a planet of unconstrained capitalism and democratic failure what matters most How do we get our bearings and direct our priorities in such a terrestrial scenario Species race sex politics and economics will increasingly come tangled in the catastrophic trajectory of climate change With a sense of urgency and of possibility Catherine Keller's No Matter What reflects multiple trajectories of planetary crisis They converge from a point of view formed of the political ecologies of a transdisciplinary theological pluralism In its work an ancient symbolism of apocalypse deconstructs end of the world narratives Christian and secular even as any notion of an all controlling and good God collapses under the force of internal contradiction In the place of a once for all incarnation the materiality of unbounded interincarnation of fragile yet animating relations of mattering earth bodies comes into focus The essays of No Matter What share the preoccupation with matter characteristic of the so called new materialism They also root in an older ecotheological tradition one that has long struggled against the undead legacy of an earth betraying theology that with the aid of its white Christian right wing invests the denigration of matter its spirit of no matter in limitless commodification The fragile alternative Keller outlines here embraces no matter what the mattering of the life of the Earth and of all its spirited bodies These essays struggling against Christian and secular betrayals of the spirited matter of Earth work to materialize the still possible planetary healing
