53. When governments realize that "rent-seeking" goods are being produced at the expense of all consumers, it may respond with protection of state property.
54. To protect intellectual property, a country must first solve the problem of external effects.
55. The law of rent-seeking is usually applied to explain why governments demand bribes from the market regulators.
56. Different types of rent-seeking are caused by property rights.
57. In our country, rent-seeking is the main reason that companies do not offer products that are of high quality.
