

Proposal Letters

Components of a good letter proposal:

Ask for the gift:

The letter should begin with a reference to your prior contact with the funder, if any. State why you are writing and how much funding is required from the particular foundation.

Describe the need:

In a much abbreviated manner, tell the funder why there is a need for this project, piece of equipment, etc.

Explain what you will do:

Just as you would in a fuller proposal, provide enough detail to pique the funder's interest. Describe precisely what will take place as a result of the grant.

Provide agency data:

Help the funder know a bit more about your organization by including your mission statement, brief description of programs offered, number of people served, and staff, volunteer and board data, if appropriate.

Include appropriate budget data:

Even a letter request may have a budget that is a half page long. Decide if this information should be incorporated into the letter or in a separate attachment.

Whichever course you choose, be sure to indicate the total cost of the project. Discuss future funding only if the absence of this information will raise questions.
