OECD Public Governance Reviews Enhancing Public Accountability in Spain Through Continuous Supervision OECD, 2021-11-30 Spain has undertaken a series of reforms over the last decade to strengthen the government's ability to deliver high quality services to citizens and businesses while enhancing transparency and accountability One major effort spearheaded by the National Audit Office Oficina Nacional de Auditoría or ONA is the continuous supervision system SSC a risk based methodology that acts as a litmus test for the financial health effectiveness and sustainability of public institutions

Dealing with Elusive Futures Noemi Steuer, Michelle Engeler, Elísio Macamo, 2017-11-15 The time to come as well as the exploration thereof remains elusive for social actors and social scientists alike The contributors accept the challenge to depict young men and women's future creating activities in urban contexts of sub-Saharan Africa. Very consciously they study young graduates having obtained a university degree and provide a vivid picture of their strategies to socially grow older by doing adulthood in contexts of great uncertainty. The examples include Burkina Faso, Guinea, Ethiopia, Mali, and Tanzania, visually enriched through pictures taken by young Malian photographers.

Retrouver du travail : Canada Améliorer les perspectives de retour à l'emploi des travailleurs licenciés économiques OECD, 2015-08-19. Mathematics Teacher Training and Development in Africa Kakoma Luneta, Marc Schäfer, 2024-10-09. This edited volume addresses the need for reforms in mathematics teacher training spurred by scientific advancements and societal changes encompassing calls for changes in curricula content and instructional methods. The text highlights the complexities of teaching mathematics specifically within Africa. It provides an exploration into how mathematics teacher training has evolved to address challenges such as ineffective teaching approaches, lack of resources, technological limitations, and outdated training programs. Through comprehensive systematic reviews for each country in the African region, documentation is provided on the past, present, and envisioned future of teacher training programs. This undertaking provides a detailed analysis of mathematics teacher training, offering valuable insights for teacher trainers, government ministries of education, and stakeholders across Africa. For anyone invested in enhancing mathematics education in the region, this book offers indispensable guidance and knowledge.

Social Media and the Law Daxton Stewart, Daxton R. Stewart, 2017-02-10. Social media platforms like Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, YouTube, and Snapchat allow users to connect with one another and share information with the click of a mouse or a tap on a touchscreen and have become vital tools for professionals in the news and strategic communication fields. But as rapidly as these services have grown in popularity, their legal ramifications aren't widely understood. To what extent do communicators put themselves at risk for defamation and privacy lawsuits when they use these tools, and what rights do communicators have when other users talk about them on social networks? How can an entity maintain control of intellectual property issues such as posting copyrighted videos and photographs consistent with the developing law in this area? How and when can journalists and publicists use these tools to do their jobs without endangering their employers or clients? Including two new chapters that examine First Amendment issues and ownership of social media accounts and content, Social Media and the Law brings together thirteen media law scholars to address these questions and more, including current issues like copyright, online impersonation, anonymity, cyberbullying, sexting, and live streaming. Students and professional communicators alike need to be aware of laws relating to defamation, privacy, intellectual property, and government regulation, and this guidebook is here to help them navigate the tricky legal terrain of social media.
