Bangladesh Sri Lanka Nepal and Bhutan      Essays on Language in Societal Transformation Tunde Opeibi, Josef Schmied, Tope Omoniyi, Kofo Adedjeji, 2015-01-30 This paper generally lends support to the arguments advanced by Awonusi 1989 1990 2004 and others in favour of an endonormative as opposed to an exonormative standard for English pronunciation in Nigeria They include the fact that the existing exonormative standard British Received Pronunciation RP has undergone and is still undergoing changes in its homeland and is not homogeneous The heightened social mobility of today's world perhaps works against the demarcation and homogenization of language varieties and this is all the more true of the varieties or lects that have been proposed for Nigerian English when these are related more or less explicitly to educational attainment Major attention is given in the paper to a schema of basilect mesolect and acrolect presented by Ugorji 2010 with a focus on his account of vowels and his presentation of a mechanism derived from optimality theory for evaluating vowels in contention The basilect and the mesolect are found to be so close to each other that they might be combined There would then be just two varieties In contrast the acrolect is close to British RP albeit with many variants due to the conflict of two standardising forces i.e. British RP and the basilect mesolect The vowel system of an officially adopted endonormative standard Nigerian RP would mainly be the same as that of British RP but the optimality mechanism could be employed to give preference to some of the Nigerian variants for inclusion in it      The Worst Leaven in the Feast of Unleavened Bread Dan L. White, 2023-02-28 The Bible Feasts are making a modern resurgence After Rome replaced them with Roman holy days God's holy days were largely ignored for nearly two millennia In this latter part of the age of man many are again looking at the Bible festivals for God's lessons for humanity After all Christ was born at the seventh month Feast time He was sacrificed at Passover He was accepted as the Wave Sheaf offering during Unleavened Bread and He began His flock at Pentecost That seems pretty important Most of the attention though has been on the Feasts of the seventh month Trumpets Atonement and Tabernacles The tendency has been to elevate Tabernacles Succoth and relegate Unleavened Bread Actually the Bible gives more attention to the spring Feast of Passover and Unleavened Bread The Worst Leaven in the Feast of Unleavened Bread walks through seven of these Feasts in the Bible Those Feast times were incredible times of spiritual elevation unforgettable high points in those people's lives with unforgettable lessons for us Not a time to be slighted What do you think      Identity and Pedagogy in Higher Education Kalwant Bhopal, Patrick Danaher, 2013-02-28 Kalwant Bhopal and Patrick Danaher examine race identity and gender within education and explore the difficulties of relating these concepts to the experience of students in higher education In drawing together the experience of local and international students in the UK and in Australia they examine the ways identities are understood and conceptualized within higher education in local contexts and on a global level They consider the complexity of race gender and identity in relation to education within the context that education continues to be dominated by predominantly white middle class values and perspectives Identity and Pedagogy in Higher Education examines the extent to which education as a vehicle for change in the light of the controversial debates
