

Lesson 7 Part 1 Introduction

Analyzing Character Development

Learning Objectives: Analyze how authors use details to develop characters in stories.

Character Development Overview

What makes the characters in a story seem real? It's all in the details. Authors can describe the characters' attitudes, or how they think, act, and feel. They can also describe the characters' motivations, or the reasons for their actions.

Often, a character's attitude and motivation change during a story. As the story unfolds, readers learn more about a character based on how that person responds to events.

Study the cartoon. For each panel, think about what the boy does and why he does it.

Complete the chart below, based on details you can see in the cartoon above.

What the Boy Does	Why He Does It	What This Shows About Him
He looks around to make sure the girl isn't gone.	He might think it is funny.	He just doesn't want her to go away.
He looks at the girl and becomes very upset.	He wonders if the girl was such a good idea.
He goes to the ground and back to the girl.

Describe how the boy seems to change over time.

Characters in stories often change in response to events. If this sounds familiar, it should! It's one of the ways in which authors make their stories similar to real life.
