The organizing principle of the book is the specific pedagogical contexts in which translated texts are being used such as courses on a single work survey courses on a single national literature or a single author and courses on world literature Examples are provided from the widest possible variety of world languages and literary traditions as well as modes of writing prose poetry drama film and religious and historical texts with the aim that many of the pedagogical approaches and strategies can be easily adapted for use with other works and traditions An introductory section by the editors Brian James Baer and Michelle Woods sets the theoretical stage for the volume Written and edited by authorities in the field of literature and translation this book is an essential manual for all instructors and lecturers in world and comparative literature and literary translation Connecting Content and Academic Language for English Learners and Struggling Students, Grades 2 6 Ruth Swinney, Patricia Velasco, 2011-05-11 In this supremely practical book award winning principal Ruth Swinney and college professor Patricia Velasco focus on the careful planning needed to develop the academic language of all students For English learners

The situation is further complicated by the motivations of learners and teachers and by attitudes towards multilingualism and otherness The studies in this volume seek to investigate not only whether certain solutions and practices are good but also when and for whom they make sense The book covers a wide range of Western multilingual contexts and uncovers common themes and practices shared aims and preoccupations and often similar solutions within seemingly diverse contexts In addition to chapters based on empirical data this book offers theoretical contributions in the shape of a discussion of the appropriateness of L1 Ln terminology when discussing complex multilingual realities and looks at how the age factor works in classroom settings Approaches to Teaching Cervantes's Don Quixote James A.
