

COOL TOOLS FOR SABBATH SCHOOL

The Adult Sabbath School Teacher

There is an expression, “a born teacher,” meaning that such a person has been endowed with native talent for teaching. Most educators do not believe the best teachers are simply born that way. People learn to teach, and we can identify skills to do it more effectively.

Teaching is one of the gifts of the Spirit. The gift of teaching may be natural or acquired, but it is not a Spiritual Gift until it is empowered by and surrendered to the Holy Spirit for action. The gift is manifest in action—not only in reception.

The empowerment of the Holy Spirit should not be taken for granted. Jesus received a daily baptism of the Holy Spirit that He might impart the words of life to others. So it may be with us.

Individual Differences in Teachers

Teachers come in all sizes, shapes, and ages. And they come from a variety of backgrounds. Some are just beginning, while others have been at it for decades. Like their students, not all have grown to the same maturity in their ability to teach or in their understanding of the Word of God. It would be unrealistic and undesirable to want all teachers to be the same.

What can be expected, however, is that teachers should grow. They don’t have to be the same teacher year after year. They can become more effective—better able to teach and more knowledgeable about their calling.

“Teachers should feel their responsibility, and make use of every opportunity to improve, that they may render the best kind of service in a manner that will result in the salvation of souls.”¹

Are you frightened and apprehensive at the thought of facing a class on Sabbath morning? If so you may increase your confidence by realizing the presence of the Holy Spirit and by reviewing the principles of adult learning in this leaflet.

Teaching is a high calling. The adult Sabbath School teacher or class facilitator may spend more time with members in meaningful education than does the pastor.

The following list characterizes a qualified adult Sabbath School teacher. Characteristics are listed in two categories: general characteristics for all church leaders and specific qualities for the Sabbath School teacher. The order in which the characteristics are listed is not prioritized.

General Characteristics of a Church Leader

- Is committed to Jesus Christ
- Is a member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church
- Gives time and energy to train for a leadership task
- Attends worship services and church activities
- Is willing to relate to another person’s point of view
- Sees the potential in others
- Acts out Christian commitment in all avenues of life
- Helps a group set its own goals and organize to reach its goals

Specific Qualities of a Sabbath School Teacher

- Has a deep respect for the Word of God
- Shares information in an interesting way
- Involves the group in making decisions about its life and study
- Plans sessions well ahead and has materials ready
- Is able to express his or her own beliefs
- Understands how learning takes place
- Helps members of a group learn from their own experiences
- Is willing to use recommended materials
- Knows how to listen to others

If these lists seem to suggest unattainable goals, the following quotations may bring encouragement.

“When we give ourselves wholly to God and in our work follow His directions, He makes Himself responsible for its accomplishment.”²

“To everyone who offers himself to the Lord for service, withholding nothing, is given power for the attainment of measureless results.”³

“In this life our work for God often seems to be almost fruitless. Our efforts to do good may be earnest and persevering, yet we may not be permitted to witness their results. To us the effort may seem to be lost. But the Saviour assures us that our work is noted in heaven, and that the recompense cannot
