Telling Stories, 2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research

Seven Tears into the Sea Terri Farley, 2010-05-11 Beckon the sea I'll come to thee Shed seven tears perchance seven years At the age of ten Gwen Cooke had a strange encounter with a boy with dark slightly tilted eyes He came to her on the beach whispered strange words in her ear and then disappeared Shortly thereafter her family moved away from their seaside home and Gwen never saw the boy again Now seventeen Gwen is returning to her childhood home Her nana asked her to come But Gwen knows it's time to go back for another reason She yearns for the sea Perhaps the sea itself is calling to her Perhaps the memory of the boy and his haunting words are drawing her back to the place they met Perhaps it's time for her to face her destiny

Blue Tear Called Love Irena Docheva, 2012-07 After years of wandering around the world of love I found the truth about it I met face to face with that wonderful fairy Love and she shared with me that despite the pain that was tearing her apart she is very happy and didn t want to part with it In my fantasy that fairy was standing smiling among the deserted sands and was holding a heart in love There was blood dripping from her hands but she looked hard and firm She split the heart in two and threw the two halves away from her They fell with ominous strength on the glowing sand started burning and burned away The fairy told me that that had been my heart and that this evil destiny awaited it She opened her scarlet lips and said that love hurts and it was like a cloud which carried many tears to my eyes in love Nevertheless I decided to follow my heart and it was saying When Love looks you in the eyes you will know I will tell you and then you take it right away hold it tight hide it here with me to be happy
